

WOMAN MAY BE APPOINTED TO NEW POST IN CABINET

Harding Said to Be Planning to Install Secretary of Education—Mrs. Upton Mentioned for Place.

W. S. DICKEY AMONG CABINET PROSPECTS

Missouri, A. T. Hert and Theodore Roosevelt Considered for the Department of Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—President-elect Harding has determined to appoint a woman to his Cabinet. This will be in recognition of the fact that the electorate has been practically doubled since the enfranchisement of women and that woman's viewpoint shall be represented in the executive councils of the Government. In order to appoint a woman, however, Mr. Harding will ask Congress to create a new Cabinet portfolio—Secretary of Education. The power to add Cabinet portfolios rests with Congress and does not require any constitutional amendment.

In all probability, Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton of Ohio will be asked to head the new department, though it cannot be said that a final selection has been made, as the names of several women are under consideration.

Progressives Want Representation.
Some of the members of the party which accompanied Mr. Harding to Point Isabel, Tex., have returned and are now the President-elect's most intimate friends making investigations concerning the Cabinet slate. Conferences are going on among various political leaders and an effort is being made to satisfy not merely the sentiment of the original Harding men who brought about Harding's nomination, but the Lowden leaders, who threw their votes to Harding at Chicago. The Progressives in the party are demanding representation.

President-elect Harding is eager to have the Cabinet selected before New Year's, so announcement may be made and the various members of the Cabinet may begin at once to familiarize themselves unofficially with their jobs.

Picking together the views of several close friends of Senator Harding who talked the situation over with him at Point Isabel and have since conferred with prominent Republican leaders, the Cabinet slate seems to be at present in this shape:

Secretary of State—Theodore C. Knox, if his health permits; David Jayne Hill, former Ambassador to Germany, or Charles Evans Hughes, if he could be persuaded to accept it, which is doubted.

Secretary of the Treasury—Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois. No other is likely to displace him as Senator Harding feels grateful to Mr. Lowden for what he did at Chicago and regards him as one of the ablest administrators in the country.

Pershing for War Office.
Secretary of War—Gen. John J. Pershing of Nebraska.

Secretary of the Navy—Former Senator John W. Weeks of Massachusetts.

Attorney-General—Harry M. Daugherty of Ohio, pre-convention manager for Senator Harding. If he declines, former Senator Sutherland of Utah may be selected.

Secretary of Interior—Senator Albert B. Fall of New Mexico. He is understood to have made arrangements for the appointment of a successor to the Senate in the event that he is asked to take a portfolio in the Harding Cabinet. He was one of Mr. Harding's intimate friends in the Senate and a personal advisor during the campaign.

Secretary of Agriculture—Henry C. Wallace of Des Moines, Ia., head of farm publications and the chief counsel to Mr. Harding on agricultural matters during the campaign.

Secretary of Labor—Representative Nolan of California or Representative John P. Burke of Pennsylvania.

Postmaster-General—Senator Harry New of Indiana, or Will Hays of Indiana.

Secretary of Commerce—Walter Dickey of Kansas City, who is being backed by Jake Hamon of Oklahoma, one of the leading members of the Harding group, who is largely credited with the success of Harding in Oklahoma this year; A. Tobias Hert of Kentucky, who was one of the original Lowden men and helped at the psychological moment at Chicago to nominate Harding; Theodore Roosevelt Jr., who is being urged as a splendid representative of the progressive element in the Republican party.

Now every Cabinet slate is like a

TWO CHAUFFEURS FINED WEEK'S PAY FOR RACING PAST SCHOOL

Policeman Tells of Speed Contest Between Drivers of Auto Trucks

Last Friday.

Marshal Hager, a chauffeur for the Benson Grocery Co., 6303 Page boulevard, was fined a week's wages in Police Court today for racing his automobile in front of St. Rose's School, Goodfellow and Eitel avenues, at 12:45 p. m. Friday.

A policeman testified Hager was racing with Joe Bonneretti, a chauffeur for the Booth Fisheries Co., 409 Franklin avenue, while children were passing across the street to the school.

Bonneretti, who was tried on a similar charge in Police Court Saturday and also assessed a fine of a week's wages, testified that Hager had tried to pass him and that he speeded up his machine to keep him from doing so. Hager denied this morning that he was racing. Hager said his weekly wage was $25, and Bonneretti gave him as $22.

NEW ENGLAND RAILROADS ASK I. C. C. FOR FINANCIAL RELIEF

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Unless immediate financial relief is afforded the New England railroads "all or most of them will very shortly be driven into receivership," the Interstate Commerce Commission was told today by Charles F. Choate Jr. and Wilbur La Rue Jr., counsel for the lines.

The commission was told that the actual returns to the roads in September and the estimated returns for October under the increased rates granted under the transportation act confirmed the contention that the income received by the roads was not sufficient to meet their requirements. Counsel for the roads said that for the eight months ending last August 31 the actual deficit in the net railway operating income of the roads, excluding the Boston & Albany, a part of the New York Central system, was $22,674,676, and that estimates for next year showed a net railway operating income of about $10,000,000, or $40,000,000 less than the net railway operating income required by the transportation act, to show 6 per cent on the fair value of the property.

REPUBLICANS SPENT $4,022,580, INCURRED DEFICIT OF $189,428

Final Report for Period Between June 14 and Nov. 19 Filed With Clerk of House.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Campaign expenditures of the Republican National Committee between June 14 and Nov. 19 totaled $4,022,580.09 and receipts amounted to $3,832,152.14, according to a final report received today by the Clerk of the House of Representatives from Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the committee.

The report indicated that the committee had incurred a deficit of $189,428.95.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The Supreme Court today advanced the case of Senator Truman Newberry of Michigan and others convicted of violation of the corrupt practices act, limiting campaign expenditures.

WILSON'S TURKEYS IN FIGHT

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The White House grounds was the scene today of a spirited contest between the turkey gobblers sent to President Wilson for Thanksgiving by South Trimble of Kentucky and the Chamber of Commerce of Cuero, Tex.

The turkeys were released from their crates and Texas leaped upon Kentucky, but in the fighting the turkey from Kentucky emerged victorious, though not unscathed. Then with bloody comb and dragged feathers it engaged in a struggle with the Lone Star State representative.

WOMAN TELLS AT INQUEST HOW SHE KILLED PARK GUARD

Verdict of Accidental Homicide Returned in Shooting at 4 A. M. Yesterday in Forest Park.

MISTOOK MAN FOR ROBBER, SHE SAYS

Mrs. Marie Scott Testifies to Firing at Man After He Jumped on Running Board of Auto.

Mrs. Marie Scott, 34 years old of 4629 Margaret avenue, Maplewood, related at a Coroner's inquest today how she killed Charles J. Bacher, 47, of 2626 Caroline street, a Park Department guard, in Forest Park yesterday about 4 a. m. when Bacher stepped on the running board of an automobile in which she and her husband, Samuel S. Scott, were going toward their home.

The Coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental homicide.

"We had been out to my sister's," Mrs. Scott began her testimony. "We stayed pretty late, I guess. It must have been 2 o'clock when we started home. We took a friend home first on Labadie avenue, then went west on Labadie to Euclid to Northland avenue, then to King's highway and south to Lindell and through the park. As we got to the big hill (on McKinley drive near Wells drive) I heard a machine following us and I said to my husband:

"There's a machine following us, keep going fast." They hollered to us from the bottom of the hill. I didn't hear what it was they said and asked my husband if he had heard. He said he could not make it out either.

Mistook Guards for Robbers.
"I said: 'It's a holdup, don't stop.' At the top of the hill they cut us off. Two men got out of the machine and one jumped on the running board and flashed a light. I then fired my revolver. I pulled the trigger, then I placed the revolver on the floor of our car.

"A man came up and said: 'Where's that gun at?' I picked it up and handed it to him. He said: 'Come on over and help. I then got out of our car and said: 'What have I done?'

"You have shot an officer," the man replied.
"I said: 'Oh, my God! Get him to a hospital.' I went to him and held his head. The other man insisted on going to a police station."

Under cross-examination by her attorney, Walter J. G. Neun, who told the Coroner that he wanted him to have every detail of the shooting, Mrs. Scott said that she took the revolver from a pocket in the automobile after she had heard the shout.

At the foot of the hill she said that she never had handled or fired any sort of weapon before.

Didn't Recognize Officers.
"Did you recognize either of the men as police officers at any time?" Assistant Circuit Attorney Griffin asked.

"No," Mrs. Scott replied, "not until I got out of the machine and the other man told me."

Mrs. Scott's husband, who is manager of a Western Union cafeteria in the Commercial Building, corroborated much of his wife's testimony.

He said that the men who overtook their machine were rather rough-looking and the one who stepped on the running board talked in a rough manner. He said that there was nothing in their appearance to indicate that they were policemen or that he did not recognize them as such until the second man flashed a badge after the shooting.

He said he heard no command to halt and that when Bacher got on the running board his cap was pulled down over his eyes and the collar of an overcoat which he wore was turned up. He said his wife fired over the steering wheel and that the second man then began to fire in the air and that he exclaimed: "That lady has got me going."

Story of Guard's Companion.
William B. Dittmeier of 1215 Chambers street, a park guard, who was Bacher's companion in the pursuit of the Scott automobile, said that he and Bacher stopped at their automobile, which was a truck converted to passenger use, at the old stables in the park for water when they observed an automobile near Grand and McKinley drives with the curtains up, which established it as a suspicious car in their minds. He and Bacher followed, he said, and observed that the car slowed down and then started once again, which served still further to arouse suspicion.

Scott explained in his testimony that the belting of his high-speed car was slipping. Dittmeier said that he and Bacher followed the Scott car on the hill and reversed back to it.

He said that as he alighted, Bacher

WAGES NOT IN WAY OF CHEAPER BREAD, UNION AGENT SAYS

Peter Beisel Asserts Excuse of Master Bakers' for Holding Prices Up Is Pure "Bunk."

Peter Beisel, business agent of the Bakers' Union, today talked with a Post-Dispatch reporter of the explanation given by local bakery proprietors of the maintenance of wartime prices for bread in the face of a decline of wheat and flour prices, and of the declaration of George N. Meissner, manager here for the General Baking Co., that bread is not likely to be cheaper until the employers put the open-shop policy in force. Meissner said this could be done after the present contracts with the union expire, April 30 next.

The statements of Meissner and other employers which appeared in a news article in yesterday's Post-Dispatch.

Beisel declared that any statement attributing the high price of bread to the present union scale of bakery wages was "bunk." The union which he represents has 1400 members here.

"When the present wage scale was placed in effect May 1 last," Beisel said, "it was shown that the increase in wages then given would not amount to more than one-half cent on a loaf of bread."

"Flour was $12.50 a barrel and as high as $14.50 in wartime, is $8 to $8.40 now. The bakeries are still getting 8 cents from the grocers for the 14-ounce loaf. Before the war, when flour was $4.50 to $5 a barrel, the same loaf sold to the grocer for 4 cents."

"The bakeries are selling a ready-wrapped loaf to the grocer for 12 cents, which the grocer sells for 15 cents. That is a pretty good profit (25 per cent) to the grocer, for handling an article which requires no wrapping."

"The union scale for bakers here is lower than in a good many other cities, among which I can name off-hand, New York, Cleveland, Detroit, Washington, Newark and San Francisco. In those cities it is $10 to $15 a week higher than here. The scale here is a minimum of $32 for 48 hours a week, and $40 for foremen. In some of the smaller bakeries, the men work nine hours for the same wage. Overtime is 90 cents an hour for bench workers, and $1 for spongers and oven men. Helpers get $25 a week, and 60 cents an hour overtime."

Another Reason Suggested.
Beisel also suggested that over-automation of the bakers' companies might be one cause of continuing high prices.

The American Bakery Co., which owns five large plants here, is capitalized at $2,000,000, and the General Baking Co., which owns plants here and in a number of other cities, has a capitalization of $20,000,000. Stock market reports show that the American Bakery Co. has paid no dividends on its common stock since January, 1915.

As was told yesterday, George Elhardt of 3030 North Newstead avenue, a bakery proprietor, has received a commuted sentence for first-degree murder.

LEAGUE MOVES FOR ACTION TO END WAR IN ARMENIA

Adopts Viviani's Resolution Inviting Council to Confer With Powers as to Sending Armed Force.

POSSIBILITY OF U. S. AID IS DISCUSSED

Serbian Delegate Recalls Harding Once Reported Resolution for Sending Marines to Batum.

By the Associated Press.

GENEVA, Nov. 22.—A resolution presented by M. Viviani of France, inviting the Council of the League of Nations to confer with the various Powers with the view of constituting a force sufficient to put an end to hostilities in Armenia, which was joined to Lord Robert Cecil's resolution along the same lines, was adopted by the assembly of the League of Nations this afternoon.

Supporting Lord Robert Cecil's demand that the assembly appoint a committee to examine into means for ending the hostilities between the Turkish Nationalists and the Armenians, M. Spalekovich of the Serbian delegation recalled that the United States Senate at one time had approved the use of the American fleet to succor the Armenians. It was recalled here in this connection that Senator Harding was the Senator who reported the resolution.

A resolution requesting the President to send marine to Batum was adopted by the Senate May 13 last. It was offered by Senator Harding on behalf of the Foreign Relations Committee.

"U. S. Ideal Mandatory."
A. J. Balfour of Great Britain, speaking of the resolutions, said that if the United States had been willing to take the mandate for Armenia, she had the men, money and spirit to make her an ideal mandatory.

The league has been unable to accomplish anything with regard to the Armenian situation, Mr. Balfour admitted, because the condition of Armenia, he argued, was not such as the league was organized to deal with.

Balfour said an appeal must be sent to the 41 states of the league for a united effort to save Armenia.

Rene Viviani of France, following Balfour, said all were agreed that compassion would no longer suffice for Armenia.

Refers to France's Plan.
"It is not the fault of France if the league today is disarmed before the situation in Armenia is righted," said Viviani.

Virtually the entire assembly applauded this statement. It was noted, however, that the British delegation did not applaud.

"If the conference had listened to France," continued M. Viviani, "we would have had an international staff and an international force to deal with this situation."

M. Viviani presented a resolution inviting the council of the league to consult the Powers with a view to the constitution of a force sufficient to put an end to the hostilities in Armenia.

Delegate Jousseaume of Rumania supported M. Viviani's proposition, and also thought the United States might be counted upon for help.

The debate gave the impression of every one thinking of a resort to intervention and yet not wishing to call it by that name. C. J. Doherty of Canada put it as "an exceptional remedy for an exceptional situation."

At the close of the debate, however, Lord Robert Cecil said he would favor armed intervention or any other practical plan of dealing with the situation.

M. Viviani proposed that a committee select one power which would accept the responsibility of taking up negotiations. He carried almost the entire assembly with him in his eloquent peroration, in which he demanded immediate action.

Balfour wanted further light on the proposed negotiations, "unless we make the French delegation proposed to offer Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Nationalist leader, as it was quite necessary, the British delegate said, to offer the Nationalist leader either money or territory. He thought it would be very difficult to organize an expedition of 60,000 or 80,000 men."

"Failure to take practical action here on this question," responded M. Viviani, "will be to demonstrate the default of the League of Nations."

"Call it negotiations or mediation," M. Viviani said, "unless we make this minimum of effort we have only to register our failure and continue our academic discussions while the Armenians perish."

The whole assembly was on its feet with the exception of the British, who sat down.

PLOTS FOR MURDERS IN ENGLAND DISCOVERED, IRISH SECRETARY SAYS

MAN KILLED, TWO WOUNDED IN FIGHT AT INN IN COUNTY

Sir Hamar Greenwood Tells House of Commons of Finding of Plans of Paid Assassins.

FIST FIGHT SUSPENDS COMMONS SESSION

Dublin Quiet After Assassination of 14 Army Men and Killing of Ten Persons by Police at Football Game.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Sir Hamar Greenwood, Chief Secretary for Ireland, declared in the House of Commons today that plans of "paid assassins," discovered recently, included destruction of life and property in England as well as in Ireland.

In reply to a question regarding yesterday's events in Dublin, Sir Hamar said he hoped "that this series of cold-blooded, carefully planned atrocities would bring vividly before the House and the public the cruel reality of the Irish situation."

"We are fighting," he said, "an organized band of paid assassins, whose plans, recently discovered, included destruction of life and property in this country, as well as in Ireland."

Three of the assassins of the British officers in Dublin were yesterday captured, with their arms. It was announced by the Chief Secretary. One of the assassins had been wounded, he added.

A violent scene occurred in the House this afternoon during the period of questions regarding the situation in Ireland. Joseph Devlin, Nationalist, and a Unionist member came to blows.

The sitting was suspended. The altercation arose after Premier Lloyd George had addressed the House briefly on the subject, being followed by Devlin. The Premier said he shared with the speaker who had preceded him the horror all felt at the cold-blooded murder of unarmed British officers. The Government, continued Lloyd George, had resolved to suppress murder and conspiracy in Ireland. It was resolved by all that to suppress such carefully organized, highly subsidized plots, would take time, but the Government was convinced that, despite the recent happenings, the Irish authorities were succeeding in breaking up the "gangs of assassins."

Would Ask for More Power.
The Premier said, however, that should experience show that the powers possessed by the Irish Government had proved insufficient for that purpose, the Government would have no hesitation in asking the Parliament for such further authority as might be necessary to achieve that end.

Devlin arose and asked why it was that when the Chief Secretary for Ireland was asked a question he resorted to the horrible occurrences which he happened yesterday, and yet said nothing about the appearance of a military force at the football match. He was interrupted with loud cries of "Sit down."

Devlin retorted: "I shan't sit down," and continued: "Why has the House not been made acquainted with a recital of these events, of the entry of the military into the football field and the indiscriminate shooting of 18 people?"

There were loud cries of "Oh!" Sir Hamar replied emphatically that he has been asked nothing about that question, but that he was prepared to answer. Devlin again spoke in loud cries of "Sit down!" and was endeavoring to speak when a member below him endeavored to pull him down. Devlin lunged forward fiercely in an effort to shake off the hold of the member, and the latter rose to his feet, and the two closed with each other.

Other members came forward to separate the pair, but the two men struggled forward. Devlin, losing his coat in the crush, cried: "This English courage and English chivalry to attack one man in 600!"

After a minute or two the two were forced into seats by friends, and the speakers suspended the sitting.

Apologizes to Devlin.
Upon resumption of the session Maj. John Moleson, Coalition-Unionist member for the Gainsborough division of Lincolnshire, who was Devlin's opponent across and applied to Devlin, to the Speaker and to the House, saying he was afraid he had

GOV. GARDNER FOR ELECTION OF PRESIDENT BY DIRECT VOTE

In Reply to Howard University Inquiry Says Electoral College Plan Should Be Eliminated.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. JEFFERSON CITY, Nov. 22.—In response to a request from the Howard University of Washington, D. C., for Gov. Gardner's opinion as to the feasibility of the President of the United States being elected by a direct vote of the people, Gov. Gardner replied as follows:

"The electoral college is a relic of a theory or principle long since wholly abandoned by the American people. We should no longer delay action to eliminate it from our Constitution, and thereby bring the latter into harmony with our faith. Furthermore, the present method although discarded as far as is possible under the Constitution and the law unjustly discriminates against citizens of certain of the states and stands as a reflection upon the ability and fitness of our citizens for complete self-government."

Two Cadets Killed in Fall of Plane.

By the Associated Press. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 22.—Two flying cadets, Simund Skymanski of San Antonio and James A. Turney of Berkeley, Cal., were instantly killed at 10 o'clock this morning when their airplane crashed on the landing field at Kelly Field No. 3 and caught fire and was destroyed. Skymanski, an instructor cadet, was 28 years old and had served several years in the army. He was married. Turney, 21, is survived by his mother in Berkeley.

NEARLY A DOZEN WANT TO BE SPEAKER OF ILLINOIS HOUSE

D. E. Shanahan of Chicago, Speaker for Several Sessions, Among Candidates.

By the Associated Press. SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 22.—Nearly a dozen Republicans are being mentioned here in connection with the speakership of the house in the legislature to convene in January, which will be strongly Republican.

Among them are D. E. Shanahan of Chicago, who has been Speaker for several sessions; William F. Holaday of Georgetown; Homer J. Tice of Greenville; G. A. Dahlberg of Chicago; James A. Watson of Elizabethtown; William A. McCabe of Lockport; Norman G. Flagg of Merom; James M. Pace of Macomb and Randolph Boyd of Galva.

There will be 36 Republicans and 57 Democrats in the House at the next session, the Democrats having six fewer members than two years ago.

Candidates discussed here for leadership of the Senate include Harold C. Kestinger of Aurora, John D. Lurnbaugh of Mount Carroll, Clarence F. Buck of Monmouth, Warren County, and William S. Jewell of Lewistown.

Republicans in the Senate will lose one member soon after the election of F. P. Brady of Chicago as clerk of the Appellate Court, First District, which will necessitate Senator Brady's resignation. Party strength in the Senate after that will be 42 Republicans and eight Democrats. It place will be filled at the time of the

The first Victrola is still in active service

Still playing the world's best music to the delight of its owners. It was the first cabinet-style talking-machine ever made, and it was built to last. The construction of the Victrola is so simple, the mechanism operates so accurately and smoothly, the materials and workmanship are of such high quality, that a Victrola seldom needs attention or adjustment.

This is one of the many reasons why you should be sure the instrument you get is a Victrola. Imitations possess neither the tone quality nor the lasting quality of the Victrola. There are Victrolas in great variety from $25 to $1500. Victor dealers everywhere.

This trademark and the trademarked word "Victrola" identify all our products. Look under the lid! Look on the label! VICTOR TALKING MACHINE CO. Camden, N. J.

WILSON'S WORK WILL ENDURE MAXIMILIAN HARDEN WRITES

That He Existed Remains the Only Great Experience of the War, German Editor Says

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—"Immortality is as certain for Woodrow Wilson's speeches as for the modulations of the Roman Emperor, Marcus Aurelius, who also stopped half way up to the heights," declares Maximilian Harden, the famous editor of the Zukunft, while fervently eulogizing President Wilson on the occasion of the first meeting of the League of Nations.

"One who sees this man, the only man amidst a hail of arrows, learns to doubt whether his work was as bad as the chorus of hate and abuse now proclaimed," says Harden. "When and where did his endeavor attain the place of the first attempt? No saint, wise man, warrior or statesman ever did."

"Wilson not only spoke, but he felt and thought as before him, never did the head of a great State. The poorest and the mightiest harkened with bated breath to his word which gave to the war a goal and which, for an hour of humanity, appeared to break down all glass barriers."

"Morally and militarily he ended the war. That Wilson existed and that he aroused an echo which roaring cannon could not drown, remains the only beautiful, great experience of the war."

"As the Roman Marcus Aurelius stands at the exit of antiquity, so this American stands on the threshold of a new world. He has painted it, out of his prophetic vision. Another will build it."

—The parchment of Versailles begins to turn yellow. Only one conqueror's work will endure—Wilson's thought."

THOMAS L. SLOAN, PRESIDENT OF the American Society of Inductors, will speak tomorrow evening at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, at 1000 and 1001 Broadway.

MODESTY NOVEL SPICE IN BEDROOM COMEDY

Few Unpleasant Allusions in
"Breakfast in Bed," Starring
Florence Moore.

The producers of bedroom farce seem finally to have discovered the value of modesty as an appetizing motive. "Breakfast in Bed," which was presented last night at the Shubert-Jefferson, actually boasts an entire first act without an offensive syllable; in fact, only two or three phrases in the entire text might be pronounced off color. To be sure, there are two unconventional situations, but it is the humor and not the suggestiveness of the scenes which gets the emphasis.

Unfortunately, "Breakfast in Bed" was not the most auspicious theme in the world on which to make the experiment of purity. It was adapted from a French farce; and it may be gathered that the original depended more upon spice than on substance to make it palatable. With such condiments eliminated, there remain complications which on their own merit are by no means overwhelmingly hilarious. In fact, the action continually tends to gravitate to earth; only the energetic struggles of Florence Moore keep it on the wing.

This romping soubrette, one of the funniest female buffoons in the business, is by all odds the life of the show. Whenever things grow dull, which is quite often, she rushes to the rescue by making funny faces, or looking cross-eyed, or kicking a substantial foot into the air, or dancing pigeon-toed; or else—what is her best forte—she enlivens the lines with her own rough-and-ready witticisms. Her efforts kept a sizable audience in chuckles.

Mixup of Sweethearts. According to the story, there is a young spendthrift whose only chance to get a fortune from his godfather is to marry. He is in love with a married woman, who has not yet obtained her divorce. So he borrows the fiancée of his best friend for the occasion. They go to a masquerade ball, drink much wine, and awake in the young man's apartment the next morning—she in his bed, wearing a Cleopatra costume, and he on a chair, in the garb of Mark Antony. They are discovered by the girl's real sweetheart, who, to save her reputation, arranges for them what they believe to be a fake marriage, but which he takes care shall be legal.

Then the lover becomes convinced that the girl was innocent, save in the trifling matter of inebriety. A divorce is necessary; the unwilling bridegroom must have grounds, so, at pistol point, he compels the lover to "compromise" the bride by appearing in her room in pajamas. "We'll meet in the courts," is the jolly adieu spoken as the curtain falls.

Miss Moore is the fiancée, and causes much amusement with her drunken scene. The setting of the bedroom is an ornate Chinese affair. Two in the cast win laughter of their own account—Tommy Meade, as a butler, and Jules Epally, as a philandering Prince.

Chauncey Olcott Comes Back in Rida Johnson Young's "Macushla."

Chauncey Olcott, who, except for his brief appearance here during the war in the Red Cross play, "Over There," has not been seen in St. Louis in a good many seasons, returned to the American Theater last night in a revival of Rida Young's delightful little play, "Macushla." The star sings more songs than he did a dozen years ago and, although he has forsaken—or perhaps it has forsaken him—the falsetto note which made him famous, his voice is still clear and strong and last night's big audience compelled him to give many encores. Between acts he came before the curtain and sang some of his old favorites. Olcott's supporting company is excellent.

MISS ANN NICCOLLS APPEARS AS SYMPHONY SOLOIST PIANIST

Miss Ann Niccolls, niece of the late Rev. Samuel J. Niccolls, made her public debut as a pianist in a solo capacity at the Symphony Orchestra's popular concert, at the Odeon, yesterday afternoon. Her choice was the fourth concerto of Saint-Saens, in C minor. She was cordially applauded, and gave an encore Percy Grainger's piano arrangement of the ballad, "Danny Boy."

A Spanish tinge was given to the orchestra's program by the performance of the Albeniz rhapsody, "A Tell."

"Night in Seville"; Chabrier's "España," and a morning serenade from Massenet's "Le Cid," the last before an encore. The feature of the afternoon was the overture to "William Tell."

KANT BREAK SPARK PLUG CO. FILES ANSWER TO PETITION

Reply Says F. W. Schumacher Did Not Authorize Use of His Name in Bankruptcy Suit.

The Kant-Break Spark Plug Co. today filed an answer in the United States District Court, to the involuntary bankruptcy petition which was filed against it recently, in which one firm and two individuals were named as creditors.

The company says, in its reply, that one of the individuals, F. W. Schumacher, did not authorize the use of his name as a petitioning creditor, and that the other, C. W. Sackett, is not a creditor, and has no provable claim. An affidavit from Schumacher is presented in this connection. The standing of the petition, as to acts of bankruptcy and mortgaging of assets, are denied. The company asked that the case be referred to Walter D. Cole, referee in bankruptcy, and the case was so referred by the court.

"RED CROSS" SOLICITOR FINED

Assessed $200 on Charge of Obtaining Money Under False Pretenses.

Miss Martha Davidson, 45 years old, who gave her address as 2109 Franklin avenue, was fined $200 in police court today for collecting money under false pretenses. Police officers who arrested her at Sixth and Bidwell streets at 11:30 a. m. Friday, testified she was soliciting funds for the Red Cross, and was dressed in a Red Cross cap and apron. Officials of the Red Cross testified that she had no authority to collect for the fund.

When arrested she had a small random book showing she had collected small sums from several individuals. She told police officers she had credentials from William showing her authority to solicit for the Red Cross, but did not produce the credentials in court. On Oct. 10 she was fined $25 on a charge of soliciting.

Give the Family a Brunswick Phonograph

So often a "blanket gift" doesn't cover everybody's wants equally, but not so with a phonograph.

From grandmother, who dotes on "Ole Black Joe," through opera, love songs, Christmas carols and jazzes for the inbetweens, down to Mother Goose ditties for the very tiny, a phonograph is a real need and a constant joy.

Then there is the elimination for the poor perplexed "head-of-the-house" of all those smaller gifts he usually has to find for every individual in the home—and this means a lot to a mere man.

Buying a Phonograph is a serious matter. You want the best, and nothing but the best, that's why we ask you to let us play the Brunswick for you, point out its peculiar excellences, either before or after you have tried other sorts. We delight in these comparisons. It has made our sales very large and each sale very gratifying all around.

While we sell only Brunswick Records with Brunswick machines, an exclusive Brunswick feature allows you to play all types of disc records—and to play them better than the phonographs for which they were made.

We will be glad to hold the Brunswick machine and records you choose now, and deliver them at Christmas time. There is no charge for this service, of course.

TO LIST BONDSMEN AND OBLIGATIONS

Circuit Judges Want to Prevent Giving of Sureties Beyond Ability to Pay.

At a conference recently of Judges Hall, Landwehr and Hartmann of the criminal division of the Circuit Court with Herman Bader, the court's clerk, it was decided to try to effect a reform in the handling of bonds with the object of preventing professional bondsmen from signing sureties far in excess of their ability to pay.

Many bondsmen are known to have signed up for amounts greatly in excess of the figures they have qualified for, and it is to curb this practice that a compilation of bonds on file is being made to determine to what extent these men will be permitted to go surety in future.

Clerk Bader has agreed that as soon as a definite plan is agreed on by the Judges, he will inaugurate a new accounting system of bondsmen. He proposes a separate book containing the names of the qualified bondsmen, with the amounts they have qualified for and all details of their real properties, together with a sliding day to day list, showing the total amount of bonds then in force against each bondsman. Heretofore no such book has been kept, the Judges having to depend upon the guess of the bondsman himself as to the total obligations outstanding against him.

It is the hope of the Circuit Judges to get the co-operation of the Judges and Clerk of the Courts of Criminal Correction, so that when application is made to give surety for a criminal, instant information will be available as to the desirability of the surety at that particular time.

Bonds are constantly being given and others are expiring, but up to the present time no accounting system has been followed, which would give the Judge of the court any definite idea of how a bondsman stood. The Judges differ as to how much bond sureties should be allowed. Some favor limiting these amounts of money the bondsmen is worth above exemption, but others say considerable leeway should be given, as a very small percentage of bonds are forfeited.

Those who argue for latitude in this respect declare that if banks, insurance companies and surety bonding companies were limited to the extent of their assets they would have to suspend business, and that a bondsman who would not be permitted to sign a reasonably fair amount above his clear property holdings could not exist.

Judge Hall said yesterday his idea was that the personal equation should be taken into consideration when determining just how much surety a bondsman would be accepted for. He said some of the men signing bonds at the Municipal Courts building were very prompt in offering money for forfeited bonds, or in bringing in principals who failed to appear and reinstating them with costs, and that this disposition should be considered in their favor.

It has been agreed that no one will be accepted in the Circuit Courts on a bond against whom an unsatisfied judgment exists.

Alexander Ratifies Treaty.
BELGRADE, Nov. 22.—Prince Regent Alexander of Jugo-Slavia has ratified the treaty of Rapallo, settling the Adriatic question between Italy and Jugo-Slavia. It was announced today.

Down to "Brass Tacks" on Player-Pianos—That's Us

WE deliberately went out to corner the best Player-Piano value in the whole U. S. We determined to get down to "Brass Tacks"—to see how cheap we could sell a dependable instrument. We have searched the factories—analyzed quality—compared the many close prices offered. And we say without hesitation or fear of contradiction that the greatest value we or anybody else ever offered is—

The Lowest-Priced Gulbransen

The great Gulbransen factory produces mostly high-grade instruments. All of the principal elements that go into a Player-Piano are standardized, of the highest quality, to be suitable for their "millionaires" model at $750. And this Lowest-Priced Gulbransen at only $595 contains a very large proportion of these same high-grade, most expensive parts.

If you look at the two instruments side by side—the Lowest-Priced and the highest priced—you might select this $595 Gulbransen as the one you would prefer. It certainly offers nothing less in style and appearance. Its tone is delightful. And remember, it plays like all Gulbransens—the most wonderful Player-Piano you ever sat down to.

THIS WEEK we are showing a special selection of unusually handsome cases of the Lowest-Priced Gulbransen—genuine Mahogany, Burl Walnut, three kinds of Oak, satin and mirror-polish finishes—chosen for this "Brass Tacks" Sale.

TODAY AND TOMORROW we are demonstrating the famous Martin Method instruction rolls, prepared for the Gulbransen Player by John Martin, the concert player-pianist. These rolls show you how your playing of the Gulbransen can be made to sound like expert hand-playing—and it's easy! Come and hear.

Nationally Priced

Think a minute. You realize that ability to give best value depends on big volume and small profits. The Gulbransen is the product of the greatest player-piano factory in the world—making nothing but Player-Pianos, under only one name, and with a capacity of 10,000 instruments annually. Quality standardization has been kept up as in no other factory. And to secure volume, "Brass Tacks" price standardization is a fixed policy. Gulbransen prices must be on a "Brass Tacks" basis because they compete with all sorts of player-pianos at all sorts of prices all over the U. S. This is the final proof that we give you best value.

Three models, all playable by hand and by roll, sold at the same prices to everybody everywhere in the U. S., freight and war tax paid.

OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

SALE OF CHRISTMAS

SEALS OF LIFE, NOV. 25

Disposition of Stickers This Year Will Be Conducted in Two Divisions.

The annual sale of Christmas seals to raise money for the fight against tuberculosis in this community will be opened on Thanksgiving day by the Tuberculosis Society of St. Louis, and will close on Christmas Eve. The sale this year will be in two divisions, the mail order sale and the general sale. The first will open Thanksgiving day with the delivery of 200 seals each through the mail on approval to persons whose names are on the mailing list of the Tuberculosis Society.

The general sale will be conducted from booths in special places, through the department stores and drug stores, in hotels, theaters, and other public buildings, in the post-offices, and at Union Station. Special days will be assigned for each of the special sales but continuous sales will be conducted from December 1 to Christmas eve, in the post-offices and the Union Station. The Catholic Women's League has volunteered to carry on the Union Station sale.

For the first time since health stickers came into use as a means of raising money for public health work the double-barred cross, emblem of the international anti-tuberculosis movement, will appear on the Christmas seals. The seals show Santa Claus in his happiest mood, carrying a merry child on his shoulders, and the child bears aloft the double-barred cross. On the seal is the greeting "A Merry Christmas, 1920, and a Healthy New Year." The posters and other advertising matter to be sent out in connection with the seal sale all carry the same idea and the same Santa Claus and merry youngster. "Seal your mail with the stamp of health" is the slogan, and the posters show the child placing a Christmas health seal on a big letter which is held by Santa Claus.

A campaign to popularize the double-barred cross and make it a familiar symbol with a definite connection with anti-tuberculosis work, conducted during the last 18 months by the National Tuberculosis Association, led up to the use of the emblem on this year's Christmas stickers. Heretofore the Red Cross seal, the emblem used on the health seals. Now the seals are issued by the National Tuberculosis Association for anti-tuberculosis work, but they are sponsored by the American Red Cross.

The sale in St. Louis will cover both the city and the county, and all money raised will be used in the fight against disease and death in the community where it is collected. The county sale will take place simultaneously with that in the city, and the St. Louis County Tuberculosis Committee will act jointly with the Tuberculosis Society of St. Louis in conducting it. The little stickers will be 1 cent each, as heretofore.

The Tuberculosis Society derives most of its support from its annual sale, and spends the money to lower the death rate from tuberculosis in this city. This work goes on throughout the year, at a cost last year of about $150,000. The society hopes to increase the coming year's budget to meet the requirements of a necessarily greatly enlarged scope of effort. According to officers of the society, the work is carried on through several departments, and only 13 per cent of the entire budget goes to administration.

As there are at present in St. Louis three funerals a day, on an average, because of tuberculosis, and 17,000 living cases of that disease, each a possible focus of five other cases, the need for increasing the scope of the fight against it is urgent. In the opinion of officers of the Tuberculosis Society.

Arguments to Continue Resistance.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—Armenia, according to the Foreign Office, has refused to comply with the ultimatum of Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish Nationalist leader, for the delivery of war materials and has decided to continue the fight against the Turks to a finish.

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold and Prevent Complications.

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter if Relief Does Not Come Within Two Minutes.

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up.

The sensation of the year in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the two-minute cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye, or any other cold and cough remedy they have tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so all you have to do to get rid of that cold is to step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonsful with four teaspoonsful of water in a glass. With your watch in your hand, take the drink at one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel your cold fading away like a dream within the time limit. Don't be bashful, for the druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

When your cold or cough is relieved, take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable cold and cough remedy for infants and children.

WOMAN BUILDING INSPECTOR SUBJECT TO EXAMINATION

Mrs. Bertha F. Drabell to Be Assigned to Department Stores.

Mrs. Bertha F. Drabell of 1254 Aubert avenue was today appointed a Building Inspector by Director of Public Safety McKelvey, subject to an examination to be taken within 90 days before the Efficiency Board. Mrs. Drabell is to be assigned to department stores, to see that no conditions inimical to safety are permitted. McKelvey said that this work could be done better by a woman than a man. For one thing, a woman could get around better in a bargain day rush, and for another thing a woman would notice conditions in such a place which might escape a man's observation.

Mrs. Drabell was recommended by the Rev. Russell B. Whiteside, pastor of the Euclid Baptist Church, and by 26 members of that church, and by Georgia N. Crandall, hostess of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria, 410 North Sixth street. She has been engaged in social service.

ACCIDENT VERDICT IN DEATH OF WEBSTER GROVES COUPLE

A verdict of accidental death, through the inhalation of gas fumes, was returned by a St. Louis County Coroner's jury yesterday in the cases of Raymond E. Jarrett and his wife, Mrs. Lydia Jarrett, whose bodies were found last Wednesday in their home in Webster Groves. Chemical analyses showed that no poison had been swallowed by the Jarretts. The theory of Coroner Denny, which the jury accepted, was that the oxygen in the two rooms occupied by the Jarretts was exhausted by the burning of a gas grate in each of the rooms, besides an illuminating jet in one room. No fresh air could enter either room.

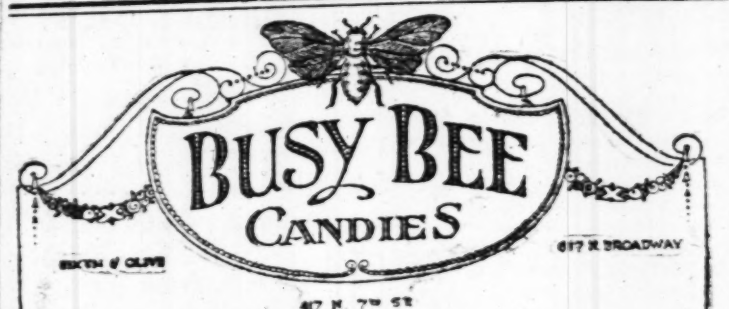

WOMAN DISCOVERS NEW STAR

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 22.—Another new star has been discovered by the Harvard astronomical observatory. The Nova, which is in the constellation Sagittarius, was found by the usual method of comparing new plates of telescopic photographs with less recent ones taken at intervals over a period of years. Comparison of the plates brought out the fact that the star was at its maximum brightness on Aug. 11 and 12, being then of the eighth magnitude, and since then has declined in brilliancy.

Miss Woods of the observatory staff detected the star, the position of which is given as right ascension 17 hours 53 minutes 44 seconds, declination minus 21 degrees 44.9 minutes (1900). The discovery is the fortieth of its kind in the history of astronomy and the twenty-second in the records of the Harvard Observatory.

Wants His Money Back

"I can thank Mr. (Hiram) A. Johnson for my recovery from severe colic attacks and stomach trouble that nearly forced me to cross the river Jordan. I spent thousands of dollars in the past five years for doctors and medicine and would have died but for my neighbor's advice to use May's Wonderful Remedy. I was I had the money back I spent for other medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and restores the normal function of the practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. Murder Suspect at Kansas City.
By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—Dennie Chester, charged with the murder of Miss Florence Barton, a society girl here, and who was captured near Oconto, Neb., Friday, after escaping from a train near Broken Bow, Neb., was returned to Kansas City yesterday. The Union Station was thronged with persons waiting to see the prisoner. Chester, flanked by detectives, was placed in a wheel chair, taken to a motor car and hurried to police headquarters.

STUDENTS AT W. U. FROM WIDELY SCATTERED HOMES

Thirty-Six States, Canada, Mexico and Six Remote Countries Represented.

Thirty-six States, the District of Columbia, six remote foreign countries and the neighboring countries, Canada and Mexico, are represented in the student body at Washington University this year. This fact was disclosed in the compilation by registrars last week for the university catalogue. The faculty numbers 223. The student enrollment is about 4300, which is an increase over 1919-20 year of more than 30 per cent. Last year the faculty numbered about 225, so that the increase for the current year is 61.

The more distant states from which students have come to the university this year are California, Washington, Oregon, Massachusetts, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, New York, New Jersey, Arizona, Florida, New Mexico, Colorado, North Carolina, South Carolina, Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Delaware, Louisiana, Texas and District of Columbia. The foreign countries, other than Canada and Mexico, are Japan, China, India, Austria, Philippines and Chile. Most of the foreigners are attending the school of medicine.

There is little increase in the number of states from which students have come, as compared with last year, but there is notable increase in the number of students from great distances.

ROBBED OF $1000, GYPSY SAYS

George Thompson, a gypsy, of 321 South Broadway, complained to the police that he had been robbed of $1000 during a general fight which the police had stopped in front of 114 South Seventh street at 2 p. m. yesterday. He was being searched at Central station, preparatory to being locked up for disturbing the peace, when he complained of the robbery.

In stopping the fight the police arrested Thompson, John Williams, also a gypsy of 114 South Seventh street, Williams' brother, Peter, and three others. Thompson said he had a dispute with the Williams' brothers and was attacked by them, resulting in a general fight. During the fight, he said, some one got into his pocket and took the money.

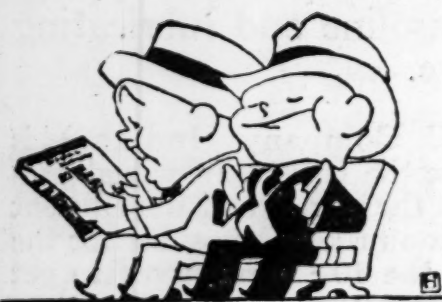

Dialogue of the Savings Pass Books

WE are the multitude of Mercantile pass books. We number more than 47,000; an army fighting for the progress of our people. We go into the homes of our owners, making those homes happy and secure. Very often we even build the homes. In times of prosperity we spur our possessors to further success; in times of adversity.... we meet the attack. We fight for our people, and we keep the faith.

No wonder the fat man chuckled

I SWELLED with pride.
THE FAT man next to me,
WAS READING one
OF MY cigarette ads,
AND I felt him chuckle.
NOW NO one had ever
PRAISED THAT ad,
SO I had to ask
IF HE LIKED IT.
AND HE SAID, "Sure."
AND LAUGHED some more.
THEN HE SAID,
"LOOK HERE" and pointed.
AND WHERE I'd written
"PURE TOBACCO,"
THE PRINTER had set,
"PURE TABASCO."
AND THAT'S why the man
THOUGHT MY ad
WAS HOT stuff.
BUT THEN he said,
"FORGET THE ad.
I NEVER read 'em.
BUT LET ME tell you
SOMETHING DIFFERENT.
THEY OUGHT to say
ABOUT THAT cigarette
AND THAT is this.
THEY SATISFY."
AND DARNED IF I don't think
HE REALLY believed.
HE WAS giving me
SOMETHING NEW!

YOU can blame it on the printer if you don't see "They Satisfy" in a Chesterfield advertisement. But be sure of this—you'll find it in the cigarette, every time. Wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, wonderfully blended—it sounds easy. But you'll find nothing else like Chesterfields. That blend can't be copied.

To Get Rid of Wrinkles and Bad Complexions

Most cosmetics clog the pores. In cool weather, when one does not perspire freely, this interferes greatly with elimination of waste material, leading instead of aiding the complexion. Ordinary mercurials wax serves all the purpose of cream, powder and rouge, giving far better results. It actually peels off an offensive skin, at the same time underlying the pores. Minute particles of dead skin come off day by day, causing not the least discomfort. Gradually the healthy, younger skin beneath peels out, and in less than a fortnight you have a level complexion than you ever dreamed of acquiring. Mercurials wax, obtainable at any drug store, is spread on nightly like cold cream and washed off morning. Use as a wash lotion. There's no time to lose.

Fights film
in two efficient ways

Polishes
so teeth glisten and film cannot easily adhere

Watch these five effects

Repeated with every application

Dental science has found ways to bring these five desired effects whenever you brush teeth.

Leading dentists everywhere advise this method now. Millions of people already employ it. Ask us to send it free to you, and see what it does in ten days. It will be a revelation.

To combat the film

The purpose is to combat film on teeth. Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. Old methods of teeth cleaning did not end it. So month after month, on countless teeth, it may do ceaseless damage.

Most tooth troubles are now traced to film. And those troubles, despite the tooth brush, have been constantly increasing. So film-removal is nowadays considered all-important.

It dims and destroys

It is the film-coat that discolors, not the teeth. Film is the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

Millions of germs breed in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

So dental science has for years sought ways to fight that film. Efficient ways have now been found and proved by convincing tests. Authorities approve and advise them. And the teeth of millions are already being protected by them.

The methods are combined in a dentifrice called Pepsodent. And a 10-Day Tube is offered free so all may quickly know it.

Millions of white teeth

Millions now use Pepsodent. The glistening teeth seen everywhere show one thing that it means.

To children it is most important, for young teeth are most subject to decay. Men who smoke and stain the film will see conspicuous effects. Women's teeth will be made to look their best.

Quick, visible results

The benefits of Pepsodent are quick and apparent. You see and feel them every time you use it. Within ten days you'll realize well how much this new way means.

One ingredient is pepsin. Another multiplies the starch digester in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. The alkalinity of the saliva is multiplied also, to neutralize the acids which cause tooth decay.

Two factors directly attack the film. One of them keeps teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily adhere.

The film itself is twice a day combated in most effective ways.

Everyone should know

Everybody, young and old, should know of these effects. Old methods of teeth cleaning do not bring them.

Send the coupon for the 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear. Watch all the results, and the book we send will tell the meaning of them.

Do this for your sake and the children's sake. It means whiter, cleaner, safer teeth. It means results you want and which you cannot get without it.

Cut out the coupon now. This is too important to forget.

BURNS ARE FATAL TO WOMAN

Mrs. Wasmer Was Unable to Tell How Clothing Caught Fire.

Mrs. Anna Wasmer, 48 years old, of 2749 A. Arkansas avenue, died at the city hospital Saturday from burns suffered Nov. 12. Her husband, Charles Wasmer, a night watchman, told the police that at 10:30 a. m. on the 12th he was awakened by the barking of his dog and that he found his wife enveloped in flames lying on the floor of the kitchen near the stove. He smothered the flames with a cape but Mrs. Wasmer was severely burned about the body and was unconscious. She was revived at the city hospital but was unable to explain how her clothing had caught fire.

OUT-OF-TOWN PHYSICIANS ARE HERE FOR SERIES OF CLINICS

Demonstrations Being Conducted at Local Hospitals Will Continue Through Wednesday.

Out-of-town physicians in considerable number are attending the St. Louis Post-Graduate Clinics, which began this morning in a number of St. Louis hospitals, and which will continue through Wednesday. The demonstrations are being conducted by St. Louis physicians. Daily programs of the clinics have been furnished to the visitors by hotel clerks.

The clinics on pediatric, dermatological and ophthalmological cases were held in the auditorium of the St. Louis Medical Society, 3535 Pine street. Clinics on other subjects were held in various hospitals. Demonstration of Roentgenograms and pathological specimens will be held at the society's auditorium tomorrow.

Dr. Dennis W. R. Crile of Chicago, who treated many fractures while in overseas surgical service during the war, will speak tonight in Washington University Medical School, Euclid and Scott avenues, on "Treatment of Fractures." Tomorrow night, in St. Louis University auditorium, 3642 Lindell boulevard, Dr. Harlow Brooks of New York will speak on "Syphilis of the Heart."

THREE MORE BARGES REACH HERE FOR UPPER RIVER TRAFFIC

Three barges of the fleet of four towboats and 19 barges which are to be operated on the Upper Mississippi River by Edward F. Goltz, arrived in St. Louis today from the shipyards at Dubuque, Ia., and are tied up at the United States Engineering Depot at the foot of Arsenal street.

Eight other of the barges are at Alton and will be brought to St. Louis from time to time as towboats are available. Two of the four towboats have been launched and it is expected that the fleet will be ready for operation with the opening of navigation in 1921. It will be used to carry coal to northwestern railroads and to bring back from St. Paul iron ore for smelting in St. Louis.

Two More Arrests Made in Mail Car Robbery.

By the Associated Press.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia., Nov. 22.—Two new arrests reported yesterday and the recovery of approximately $8000 are the latest developments in the Burlington mail car robbery of a week ago Saturday night.

Admissions alleged to have been made by Fred E. Poffenberger led to the arrest of Poffenberger's father, Fred A. Poffenberger, and another son of the latter, Clyde B.

Poffenberger, and later to the discovery of the money. Federal officers said.

Trying to Get Along With Low Vitality and Weak Blood

NOT FAIR TO THEMSELVES

Pepto-Mangan Builds Rich Red Blood and Restores Strength

If you want to succeed in your work—to get to the top, look first to your health. Be physically fit. Keep your blood in good condition.

If your blood is bad you lose enthusiasm. Little things bother you. Instead of concentrating on your work, you drowse. You try to pull yourself together. It takes all your energy to do just average work. Perhaps your blood has become clogged with poisons. You are just beginning to feel it. You need the good blood tonic, Pepto-Mangan. It contains ingredients that feed your blood and purify it. You get more red corpuscles. Then your energy comes back and you eat better. It shows in your daily work. You get things done without exhausting yourself. You get back to normal—the way you should be.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." It is put up in both liquid and tablet form.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No gripping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth," had breath—a dull, tired feeling—detached headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them, Mr. and Mrs.

Motor
Miles

THE number of motor miles traveled by the average American has been increasing steadily for a decade. During 1921 this mileage again will be vastly increased.

It is estimated that 10 million automobiles and trucks will be in operation by the end of 1921. The estimate for 1920 is 7,523,000.

The most intensive use of all kinds of automotive machinery is in the 10 Middle Western states served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), and the major problem confronting this company is to keep its patrons supplied with all the gasoline and lubricating oils they require.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is acknowledged to be the largest individual producer of gasoline in the world, and its efficient system of distribution makes it possible for the remotest citizen in the 10 states served to get his requirements of petroleum products with a minimum of effort and expense.

Advanced methods of refining, originated in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) laboratories, have vastly increased the percentage of gasoline recoverable from crude oil.

The Company is striving to increase the yield of gasoline, and every effort is concentrated to the accomplishment of this result without sacrifice of gasoline quality. The efficiency of Red Crown Gasoline is an illustration of what has been accomplished.

The entire petroleum industry is working to multiply the motor miles which shall be available during 1921, and the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is leading in this effort.

Prospectors are seeking to discover new fields to drill. Producers are insisting on maximum output from wells already drilled.

Waste of oil in transportation is practically eliminated, and the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) efficiency in refining has vastly increased the average recovery of motor fuel from the crude available.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is co-operating in every way with the automobile industry and the American motorist to multiply motor miles in 1921.

U. S. ARMY DESERTERS IN FRANCE BY THOUSANDS, PREACHER SAYS

American army deserters, now in France, were mentioned by the Rev. Dr. Stanley Ross Fisher, co-pastor of the American Church in Paris, in two addresses in St. Louis churches yesterday, as part of the problem confronting American religious workers in France.

Dr. Fisher said there were thousands of these deserters who dare not return to the United States, and that some of them are living by criminal methods. He spoke also of the increased number of American art students in Paris, as those who once went to Munich, Dresden and Berlin to study now go to Paris. Many American students are also going to French technological schools. To meet the need created by these conditions, Dr. Fisher said, an effort is being made to increase the work of the American Church, an interdenominational body, by providing a new church building and a social service building, the latter to be in the Latin quarter. Dr. Fisher spoke yesterday morning in Pilgrim Congregational Church and in St. John's Methodist Church at night.

The Flavor Lasts So Does the Price!

The Success of Your Thanksgiving Dinner May Depend on the Flour You Use

A lot depends on your choice of a flour this year. Only four per cent of the whole hard winter wheat crop was strong enough to produce flour that will do really fine baking.

Enterprise you can count on. It is milled from this "four per cent wheat" even tho we had to pay the highest premium we have ever paid for every bushel we bought. You needn't worry about your Thanksgiving baking if you use Enterprise Flour.

Enterprise costs more than ordinary flour because of its high and absolutely dependable quality. But think of the better baking it will do. And a sack will go further.

HELP THE TO HELP

THE United States is facing stupendous health problems. The answer rests with the RED CROSS. The power of the RED CROSS to adequately meet these problems is measured by the support of its members.

Your dollars make its victories possible, just as they made the American Expeditionary Forces' victories possible in France.

The only difference in situation is that NOW we are fighting a gigantic, invisible enemy on a limitless battle line.

It costs you but a dollar to be a soldier in the war on disease and human suffering.

Do you know some of the things your elastic RED CROSS dollar is doing now? It is—

Maintaining and establishing public health centers,

Training and providing public health nurses, permanently assigned to communities as instructors and guides,

Giving first-aid instruction in all Chapters,

Organizing and training 22,000,000 school children of the United States along practical service lines,

Maintaining a scientific and intensive preparedness for disaster and tragic emergencies,

Creating and maintaining interest in child welfare, preventing needless waste of future national strength because of deaths of hundreds of thousands of babies due to ignorance and neglect.

Renew your membership in the RED CROSS. Enlist your family and friends during the Fourth Annual Roll Call, November 17 to 25.

Your support of the Red Cross will make Thanksgiving Day, the last day of the roll call, one of real thanksgiving to the needy afflicted and to yourself.

PLAN TO USE PROPERTY TO FORM GERMAN CREDIT

President Said to Have Been Appealed to by Bankers to Permit Use of $450,000-
000 Held by U. S.

CREDIT OF 5 BILLION WOULD BE SET UP

Step Said to Be Necessary to Aid American Banks—Officials Skeptical of Legality of Scheme.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—President Wilson is in a position to permit the immediate inauguration of a plan that offers the only possible solution of the existing precarious state of world trade and also rehabilitation of the rapidly disintegrating industrial fabric of the United States, said a leading financier in discussing a proposed plan of a credit of American banks to utilize the approximately $450,000,000 of German property now held by the Alien Property Custodian to establish a credit in the United States of $2,000,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 for Germany.

Under the plan of the bankers, who propose establishing an export corporation under the provisions of the Edge law, the credit is to be exclusively for the purchase in this country of cotton, wheat, copper, corn and provisions which thereby a surfeit, but for which Germany is starting because the present low rate of exchange on German marks precludes the possibility of its acceptance in trade for export and import goods.

Officials in Washington who are in close touch with conditions throughout the country regard the present condition of financial institutions as extremely precarious because of the tremendous decline in the market price of cotton, wheat, corn and other commodities. They believe that the solution proposed by the group of bankers is the only practicable plan to relieve the pressure on banks caused by necessary outlays in the form of loans to produce the crops.

President Appealed To.
Appeals to the President to sign a decree permitting the utilization of the German property in this manner have made plain the delicate conditions existing generally and it has been specifically urged that establishment of the credit would be in the nature of a direct loan to Germany, not only for conditions in this country but for the trade of the world.

The plan has been in process of formulation for more than three months. Information is in the hands of the Government that arrangements already have been perfected in Germany for the carrying out of the plan. According to this information, powerful syndicates have been formed of the strongest firms in each of the various trades and in addition a syndicate has been formed of the 15 most powerful banks in Germany. In addition to the Bank of Germany, this syndicate of banks is to guarantee the payment of all debentures on a gold settlement basis. The bank and trade syndicates have appointed a trustee who is to be held directly responsible to the banks for the equal distribution of the raw materials that are purchased through the American corporation.

It has been determined that the goods bought under the proposed plan would be in the nature of new business and would not be subject to the Reparations Commission, and, therefore, the goods can be bought and sold on an established gold settlement basis.

The Government has been informed that if under presidential decree the German property now held by the Alien Property Custodian is turned over to the syndicate there will be formed a corporation with a capital stock of $400,000,000. To this will be added $100,000,000,000 in the form of subscriptions by other banks, and this will be secured by common stock. The proposed ratio of credit to capital is to be 10 to 1, making a total credit of $5,000,000,000 for expenditure in the United States.

Satisfied With Arrangements.
This Government has been unofficially informed and is understood to be fully satisfied with the financial facilities set up in Germany for the protection of American rights in the proposed trade relations and the guarantee against any loss accruing to those who participate in the export of materials.

While no official statement has come either from the White House or from the Treasury on the matter, it is understood that the President will reserve his decision until after he has discussed it fully with Secretary of the Treasury Houston and has received his recommendations. Secretary Houston was not present.

ORGANIZED LABOR ADOPTS DEFENSIVE, STRIVING TO HOLD WHAT IT HAS GAINED

Leaders Expect Wave of Lockouts and Strikes
but Are Not Panic Stricken—Recognize Wage Adjustments Must Follow Cheaper Living.

By JOHN J. LEARY, JR.
A Special Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and the New York World.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Organized labor, as represented by the American Federation of Labor, will not attempt to raise any $20,000,000 defense fund, as suggested by some minor leaders in New York. Neither will it be swept into a state of panic by threats of the open shop or of wholesale wage reductions. This, in a nutshell, is the substance of the conclusions of the executive council of the federation, which for more than a week has been considering these and kindred questions.

Also it should be said that it will not permit theorists and soothsayers of various types, whether they be college professors or the more common variety of uplifters, to wish upon it patent schemes for meeting what it must be admitted is a trying situation for the trades unions of the country and the men and women who make up their membership.

Frankly, organized labor, on the aggressive since the summer of 1914, when the choking off of immigration and the building up of war industries, together with the departure of many thousands of aliens to fight with the Allies, wiped out the big surplus of workers then existing, is now on the defensive to hold the gains it made during the rush period. This fight comes as no surprise; it was anticipated as far back as the Buffalo convention of the organization in 1917 and so far as its defensive organization can do it, it has been prepared for.

Roughly, this fight will of necessity have to be made on two lines: one to hold the improved working conditions, including the shorter work day, obtained during the war; the other to hold so far as may be possible the increased wages and prevent so far as may be possible the reduction in wages before the things those wages will buy have reached much lower price levels than now prevail.

Wages Recognized as Relative.
It is not in the minds of the more seasoned leaders that wages shall in the future remain at the wartime levels. These realize that wages are at all times relative, and that, with everything else dropping, pay must tend to drop also. To say that they will fight to keep all wages up to present levels is to accuse them of intending to buck their heads against stone walls.

But they will fight, and to a finish, to prevent a return to the long hours that prevailed in many industries, the wiping out of the eight-hour day in others, the repeal of laws intended to protect women and children in industry, and the breaking down of systems of collective bargaining extended during the boom period.

This, obviously, is the direct opposite of the "open shop" program, which however new it may appear to be to those not in touch with industrial conditions, is merely an old movement, managed and directed largely by lawyers who never practice law, always very quiet in good times, but much in evidence when there is a large supply of labor. It is always well financed, always capable of getting more than its fair share of publicity and, likewise, usually capable of taking on a new outward form. Just now its leaders call it "the American plan," and taking their cue from George M. Cohan, are engaged in waving the flag and quoting the constitution with all the fervor and industry of men who have just made novel discoveries.

To attempt to fight this movement by the raising of a defense fund, even of $20,000,000, is impossible under Federation law and, in the opinion of labor men, not advisable for the good reason that any attempt to match dollars with the big manufacturing interest would be on a par with Mrs. Partington's historic attack on the Titanic Ocean with a broom.

This sum, vast as it is, is small compared with the total sums spent in one form of open shop work or another. The United States Steel Corporation, for example, is spending in excess of $1,000,000 a month in welfare work, one method commonly used to keep unions out of industry. It might without serious hurt to its treasury spend many times its total amount.

Fund Suggestion Not Followed.
Furthermore, the Federation would not know what to do with $20,000,000 if it had it. There are limits beyond which any aggregation of labor organizations would not go, and the Federation's limit is much below that mark.

The suggestion of such a fund came originally from irresponsible sources in New York. The Central Federated Union, which for many months past has been in opposition to the American Federation of Labor and has had but a nominal existence. Within a fortnight it will pass out of existence as a labor organization. The publicity given the suggestion, however, has worked harm to labor in that it has given the open shop advocates a new hook on which to hang propaganda and base ap-

FOCH'S OWN STORY OF MEETING WITH ARMISTICE ENVOYS

Book of Remembrances Published in Paris Tells of Reception of German Delegates at Rethondes.

"FOR YOU TO TAKE OR LEAVE," HE SAID

Marshal Told Writer Another
Sedan Was Possible, but
It Would Have Cost
Thousands of Men.

Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.

PARIS, Nov. 21.—A book of personal remembrances of Marshal Foch by Baron Andre de Maricourt, has just been published which gives Foch's own account of what happened at his meeting with the German armistice delegation in his private car at Rethondes. When the delegates entered Foch rose and saluted, saying:

"Gentlemen, present yourselves. You have before you the Generalissimo Foch and at my side is my chief of staff. Now it is for you to show your credentials."

The delegates handed him their papers. He scanned them rapidly, then added:

"Good. Your papers are in order. What do you wish?"

The Germans answered in chorus: "We have come to discuss the armistice."

Foch interrupted sharply: "I don't understand. To discuss? You wish to discuss the armistice?"

"This is not the time for discussion; it is for you to take or to leave. If not the war will continue. You have 48 hours to give your response. Gentlemen, you may now retire."

"They had no right to act thus," said the Marshal on coming out after the interview. "Their attitude," Constansberger had the audacity or rather the lack of conscience to ask us to come in to establish order."

In a conversation with Baron de Maricourt the Marshal sets at rest the reports that he opposed an armistice.

"Yes," said the Marshal, "we could have gone further and could have inflicted on Germany another Sedan, but to do that it would have been necessary to sacrifice thousands of men. I had no right to act thus."

Favors Strong Rhine Boundary.
Foch is a fervent believer in a strong Rhine boundary. This is the way he put it to Baron de Maricourt: "If for certain reasons we cannot annex the Rhine provinces they must at least remain a sort of frontier between Germany and the West. At all cost, we must obtain firm guarantees. What would you say of a garden whose fruit had been stolen for generations by the same marauders, and which the owner only protected by a sign reading, 'No trespassing'?"

"The war is ended," the victorious soldier declares, "but the time has not come for men to amuse themselves or for women to take off their clothes in order to appear properly dressed. It is time to work, to work hard and long for the sake of France."

JAPANESE PEACE ASSOCIATION

Better Understanding With the U. S. the Object.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, Nov. 22.—Representatives of all political parties have formed an international peace association with the object of endeavoring to arrive at a better understanding with the United States.

The intention of the members as expressed was the enlisting of religious and cultural leaders who will visit the United States, and also issue publications tending toward a betterment of conditions between the two countries.

FRANCE EXPECTS RETURN TO GREECE OF CONSTANTINE

Government Not to Oppose
With Physical Force the Occupancy of the Throne
by the Former King.

LEYGUES TO CONFER WITH LLOYD GEORGE

Bad Morale of Greek Troops in Smyrna Heightens Importance of Franco-British Action.

By the Associated Press.

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The French Government will not oppose by physical force the return of former King Constantine to the Greek throne, which the Foreign Office now regards as inevitable, the Associated Press was informed today.

It was stated that Premier Leygues will advocate at his meeting with Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain that a joint note be sent to the Greek people pointing out to them very strongly the consequences of Constantine's restoration, prominent among which would be the withdrawal of the financial and economic support of Greece.

The Foreign Office is convinced that the plebiscite to be held on the question of Constantine's return will overwhelmingly favor the proposition.

The importance of Franco-British action on the Grecian question is heightened, according to the Foreign Office, by the news from Smyrna that shows bad morale among the Greek troops in certain districts and in the Smyrna garrison. The soldiers there are said to be exercising self-denial and demanding their return home, and it is feared this spirit finally will spread to the actual fighting front.

M. Leygues and Lloyd George, in the conference of this week, will discuss the situation. It is recognized by the Foreign Office that the developments in Greece and the possible lowered conditions of the Greeks may make a revision of the Sevres treaty necessary, as that treaty was made up on the theory that it would be enforceable only through Greek cooperation.

Greek Situation and Article Ten.
In an article on the Greek situation the Temps quotes Article X of the League of Nations covenant and remarks that, if the Turks or the Bulgarians cross the treaty frontiers of "France, Great Britain and Italy will be bound to intervene as members of the League of Nations."

It adds: "Will it be said that in practice this text does not apply? This would mean an escape the allies have no right to use. To give a guarantee while reserving the right to make it illusive would be to credit with premeditation the theory of a scrap of paper. Either one must unite, or one must not. If one must unite, what is promised?"

"The war is ended," the victorious soldier declares, "but the time has not come for men to amuse themselves or for women to take off their clothes in order to appear properly dressed. It is time to work, to work hard and long for the sake of France."

It adds: "Will it be said that in practice this text does not apply? This would mean an escape the allies have no right to use. Queen Marie of Rumania Visits Former Greek Royalty.
LUCERNE, Nov. 22.—Queen Marie of Rumania arrived here yesterday in connection with the announcement of the engagement of Crown Prince Charles of Rumania to Princess Helene of Greece.

Prince Nicholas, brother of former King Constantine, will join Prince Andrew and Prince Christopher at Brindisi and together they will return to Athens. Prince Christopher is reported to have left Rome with Prince Andrew on Saturday night. Princess Christopher, former Mrs. Leeds of New York, accompanied her husband.

Attack Against Nationalists in Smyrna Ordered.
LONDON, Nov. 22.—Orders for a general attack against the Nationalists on the Tiah front, about 130 miles northeast of Smyrna, in Asia Minor, have been issued by the new Greek Government, a dispatch filed in Athens on Saturday to the Exchange Telegraph Co. says.

Japan Pools Rail Holdings.
Rights in Three Roads in China Sacrificed in Consortium.

By the Associated Press.

TOKIO, Nov. 22.—Japan has pooled her rights in three railroads in China with the nations making up the consortium which will play a dominant role in the financing of Chinese engagements, says the newspaper Nichiichi in discussing the consortium arrangements. These are the Taisan-Shunten-Fu, Kaomi-Huohow and Tiao-Je Railroads, and the newspaper questions whether Japan's sacrifice is not too great.

Another newspaper, the Kokumin Shimbun, complains the consortium reduces Japan to the same level with the United States and England, and that Japan gets an internationalized country as a neighbor. The principle of Asia for Asians," the newspaper concludes, "thus receives a blow."

"It is time nations quit wars and returned to work again. We wish to live at peace with all nations, and we trust our Turkish relations will not be affected."

PANAMA CANAL HAS BEST YEAR WITH AN EXCESS OF $2,387,599 OVER EXPENSES

Governor Predicts That Within Reasonable
Period Waterway Will Earn Profit on
Cost of $366,650,000.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The Panama Canal has closed the best year financially in its six years of operation with an excess of $2,387,599 in revenue over the expenses of operation and maintenance.

Brigadier-General Chester Harding, Governor of the Panama Canal, predicted in his annual report to the Secretary of War, just made public, that within a reasonable period of normal world conditions, the canal will earn an actual profit on its cost, which has been $366,650,000, exclusive of expenditures for its military and naval defense. Meantime, the General added, the canal is performing an important commercial service by stimulating American trade with the west coast of South America and the Orient. More than 25 per cent of the cargo handled through the canal since its opening was in transit between the United States and South America, and 14 1/2 per cent was between the Atlantic coast of the United States and the Orient.

In Operation Six Years.
Within the six years of operation, Gen. Harding's report said, there has been a marked increase in traffic through the canal, notwithstanding the fact that the world war interfered with the normal development of ocean-going commerce. After the war there was a decrease in commercial traffic, due to the diversion of certain lines of ships to transatlantic service, but this was more than offset by the increase in traffic growing out of the war, chiefly on account of the development of the nitrate trade with the Pacific coast of South America.

Discussing the amount of money expended by the United States on the canal, Gov. Harding said: "The investment, from one point of view, may be regarded as having been made and justified in the creation of an invaluable element of national defense. If this be true, the canal has an additional value in rendering useful service in time of peace, and in returning to the Federal Treasury revenue more than sufficient to defray the expense of its operation and maintenance. It is capable of doing more than this; and it is not an idle prediction to state that with proper management directed along the lines of a large business enterprise, it will within a reasonable period of normal world conditions earn an actual profit on its cost. From an analysis made of reasonable assumptions as to amortization, depreciation, obsolescence and interest it is estimated that with an annual revenue of three times that of 1920 the canal will make a financial return on the investment. The time required to produce this result will be affected by any changes in legislation affecting changes for tolls."

In the year 2745 vessels passed through the canal, of which 2478 were commercial transits. Tolls and other revenues amounted to $8,885,871, while current expenses of operation and maintenance totaled $6,498,272. The excess of revenue this year reduced to $2,387,599 the excess of expense and maintenance over revenue for the six years the canal has been in operation.

2745 Vessels Passed Through.
At the rate of revenues this year it is expected that by June 30, 1921, the collections for tolls and other canal revenues will exceed by $1,000,000 or more the total current expenses of operation and maintenance from the opening to that date, after which the canal authorities argue, there should be an excess of $5,000,000 or more each year.

The auxiliary services of the canal have been largely utilized and are of great value in carrying out the policy of making it attractive in all of the incidental services that are considered by shipping interests in routing their vessels. Gen. Harding said, adding that it has not been the purpose to make large profits on these activities, but rather to regulate the charges so as safely to cover the cost. From these miscellaneous services the receipts for the year were: Coal, $6,032,578; water, $35,412; oil, groceries and miscellaneous supplies, $1,274,556, and mechanical repairs to ships, $1,853,933.

Must Expand Facilities.
With the growing traffic, it will be necessary to expand these auxiliary facilities in the near future, the General pointed out. He said that drydock and shops were inadequate to meet the present requirements of commercial steamers, and that if the development were permitted to lag behind the increasing traffic, the canal would not be in position to handle all the business offered.

Dredging costs totaled $1,611,869 this year, or half a million dollars more than last year, because of the slide in the Gaillard Cut. The first indication of the disturbance came during a heavy rainfall in October last year. The movement continued without serious results until February, 1920, when a large general slide carried huge masses of rock and earth into the canal, obstructing the channel, except for small draft vessels.

Dredges kept the canal open to all traffic with the exception of occasional delays in February, March and April, and by June the channel was open to the regular traffic. The report said, on account of the large amount of material moved it is not probable that sudden movements of large masses will again occur, according to the report, or that movements will be more rapid than the rate of removal by the dredges.

Poet Says He Will Continue Fighting Until Italian Aspirations are Fulfilled.

By the Associated Press.

FUME, Nov. 22.—Gabriele D'Annunzio, insurgent commander at Fiume, declared today he was unalterably opposed to accepting the treaty of Rapallo settling the Adriatic dispute between Italy and Jugo-Slavia, and that he would continue fighting until the just claims of Italy were met.

"I will not yield; I will cede nothing," declared D'Annunzio to the correspondent. "The fruits of victory belong to Italy. Friends of mine, Generals in the army, officials of the Government, implore me to accept the treaty of Rapallo, but I will not recede. Italy's just claims must be satisfied."

"I am fighting a just fight, and I will continue until the Italian aspiration is fulfilled. Friends may abandon me. Let those who lack courage desert me. Let those who fall in resisting with iron will. There remain the brave with Gideon, and Gideon's brave will conquer."

CHURCH AGAINST ILLINOIS BALL

Methodists Oppose Dance Because Len Small Is Member.

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Resolutions protesting against the proposed inaugural ball at the State House when Governor-elect Len Small takes office were passed yesterday by two Chicago Methodist Episcopal churches.

Similar resolutions are to be offered in every Methodist Church in the State, it was said. The resolutions are based on the fact that Small is a member in good standing of the church, which is opposed to dancing.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

STRASBOURG, Nov. 21.—As thousands sang "The Marseillaise" and later the military bands of Strasbourg garrison played "The Star Spangled Banner," high officials of the municipality, headed by Mayor Peiro, yesterday afternoon received a beautiful bronze plaque commemorating the birth of the stirring French anthem, "The Marseillaise," written here in 1792 by Capt. Claude Joseph Rouget de Lisle, at the hands of a delegation of Milwaukee citizens.

Lawrence Fitch, chief of the Milwaukee delegation, made the presentation, pointing out that the city of Milwaukee wished by the gift of this tablet to indicate her admiration for victorious France, once again in possession of the old center of French civilization.

In response to his speech, in which he also expressed his own and the delegations' satisfaction at the results already achieved by France in rebuilding her war-scarred provinces, Mayor Peiro said that not only Strasbourg and Alsace but the entire French nation would never forget this fresh mark of American friendship for his country.

"Strasbourg is today once more free of the oppressor," said the Mayor, "because the spirit of the Marseillaise, which citizens of Milwaukee have so touchingly honored by this tribute, has triumphed."

Parade a Feature.
Brilliant sunshine and countless French and American flags gave the Alsatian capital a gay appearance when at 10 o'clock Marshal Foch, Gen. Gouraud and Weyand, accompanied by members of the Milwaukee delegation, officials of the Alsace-Lorraine and Strasbourg took up positions for the huge military review arranged in honor of the American guests. Troops of all arms belonging to the Strasbourg garrison, including tanks and artillery, took part in the parade, which was watched by more than 20,000 women, girls and children dressed in picturesque Alsatian costumes. As soon as the review was over Marshal Foch, turning to Mr. Fitch, announced that in the name of his Government he conferred the order of officer of the Legion of Honor on him as well as on Albert Blum, president of the Alsace-Lorraine Society of the United States. Miss Lorraine Goodrich and Dr. W. C. Kling, member of the Milwaukee delegation, received at the Marshal's hands the commission of Officer's Public Instruction.

Among other Americans present at the ceremony were Prof. Charles D. Hagen of Columbia University, Dr. Charles G. Ottwell of Columbia University and Alvin Fuller and Mrs. Fuller of Boston, former residents of Wisconsin.

In a short speech Marshal Foch told of the brilliant record of the Thirty-second Division (Wisconsin and Michigan) at the most critical points, such as Montfaucon and in the Argonne.

"I remember," said the Marshal, "a cablegram I sent to President Wilson asking what America would do for us in the war. 'We shall send you 100 divisions fully equipped.' As was the prompt reply, and this America would have done had not the armistice put an end to the fighting."

"But," he added, "if you wish to go back a little in history, we will see that it was from an Alsatian family—from Alsatian stock—that came Pershing, Commander in Chief of the American armies, of the great war armies he led to victory. It is because I shared with him the honor of leading those valiant battalions to battle that I praise him, his past and his origin, which Alsace can claim by good title."

Referring to Mr. Fitch's description of part of Milwaukee having been pro-German, Marshal Foch continued: "But she took her part by bringing strong sentiment and strong aid in material and men to the allies. The United States itself responded with generosity and gave all she had to aid France."

Message From Wallace.
The afternoon program began with a luncheon at the headquarters.

PLAN TO USE ALIEN PROPERTY TO FORM GERMAN CREDIT

at the Cabinet meeting last Tuesday when the matter was brought to the attention of the President.

While it is understood that Attorney-General Palmer has ruled that the President has full authority to dispose of the German property by presidential decree so long as the rights of the owners are fully protected, the State Department declared that President Wilson has no authority to dispose of the alien property. The State Department holds that Congress specifically reserved to itself the power of final disposition of all alien property seized during the war. It was conceded that the establishment of such a credit as proposed by the American group would go far toward stabilizing exchange and putting not only Germany but Europe in general on its feet.

Treasury officials were emphatic in expressions of approval of the proposed plan, but also were skeptical of the possibility of putting the scheme into immediate effect because of the fact that the United States is still technically at war with Germany and therefore no commercial treaty is in existence between the two countries.

These officials also doubt the possibility of the establishment, legally, of such a credit for Germany until after it is determined exactly the amount of reparations that the allies will demand.

Opposition may develop in Congress to the proposed plan. Members who would not be quoted but who are in position to exercise considerable influence, declared that inasmuch as the German funds are held in trust they seriously doubted whether the money should be invested in anything but Government securities or held as cash.

"I am in entire accord," said one member, "with the organization of the Edge corporations for facilitating trade, not only with Germany but with the world; but I have serious doubt about the use of these trust funds now in the hands of the Alien Property Custodian for that purpose.

While virtually every great banker in the United States is known to be in favor of the proposed syndicate and will render all possible aid in the carrying out of the trade plans, the active organizers include Morgan & Co., Charles Sabat, president of the Guaranty Trust Co., Albert Wiggin of the Chase National Bank, Thomas W. Lamont and several others.

Former Ambassador Henry Morgenthau said at Baltimore Saturday night that he was intensely interested in the plan. He said he had not yet seen the President and wished to get his facts and proposals in better shape before submitting them to the White House.

of High Commissioner Alapetite, when Col. Bentley Mott, American military attaché, read a message from American Ambassador Hugh C. Wallace, expressing satisfaction at the action taken by his fellow-citizens. Beginning at noon patriotic societies of Strasbourg and detachments of the garrison formed into a monster parade, heading for Hotel de Ville, where presentation of the tablet was made and the "Marseillaise" sung. There were shouts of "Vive l'Amérique! Vive Milwaukee!"

Simple and brief as the actual ceremony was, it was marked by striking outbursts of popular rejoicing. At one moment 15,000 persons broke through the line of soldiers placed around City Hall Square with shouts of "Long live our American friends!" Similar demonstrations accompanied the morning military review, particularly at the moment when Mrs. Lawrence Fitch, in the name of the delegation, placed a flower wreath at the foot of the

EIGHT MEN ROBBED IN THREE HOLDUPS LAST NIGHT

Proprietor and Five Saloon Customers
Among the Victims—One Saved
$50 by Tossing Money Away.

Eight men were robbed in three holdups last night, one saving $50 by tossing it away when the highwayman was engaged in looting a cash register.

At 9 p. m., a man carrying a revolver walked into the saloon of John Cicerich, 2309 South Eighteenth street, and ordered the proprietor and five customers to line up against a wall with their hands uplifted. He then backed to the cash register and took from it $15. He also took $6 from Cicerich, $3 from Michael McKinley of 2814 Salena street, and smaller amounts from the others and jumped into an automobile which was waiting. McKinley, after the robber's departure, recovered $50 which he had thrown into a corner.

Earl Whitney, 3033 Magazine street, was robbed of $9 by two men in front of his home at 6 p. m. Patrolman Glaser was around the corner at the time, but when he reached the scene in response to Whitney's calls for help the robbers had disappeared.

Henry Clark, 3014 Laclede avenue, was robbed of $85 by three men near his home at 10 p. m.

LONDON AUTHOR TO SPEAK AT PILGRIM CELEBRATION TONIGHT

Protestant Churches of City and County to Hold Meeting at Pilgrim Congregational.

E. Harold Spender, biographer of Herbert H. Asquith, David Lloyd George and Gen. Botha, will be one of the principal speakers at a celebration of the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims to be held tonight in Pilgrim Congregational Church, Union boulevard and Kensington avenue. The other principal speaker will be the Rev. Galus Glenn Atkins of Detroit.

Protestant churches of St. Louis and St. Louis County will unite in this meeting. Forefathers' day, usually observed Dec. 22, has been advanced a month, in order that the Christmas season may not interfere with the full observance of the three-hundredth anniversary of the landing at Plymouth, which historians place on Dec. 21 or 22, 1620. Spender, who has been on the staffs of the Pall Mall Gazette, the London Daily Chronicle and the Manchester Guardian, is one of the British delegates selected to participate in the Pilgrim tercentenary celebrations in this country.

KINGSTON APARTMENTS ARE SOLD FOR $41,000

Building at 5567 Waterman Avenue Bought by Mrs. Clara Sachar and Mrs. Lillie Sussman.

The Weisels-Gerhart Realty Co. reports the sale of the Kingston Apartments at 5567 Waterman avenue, for the account of George A. Sykes to Mrs. Clara Sachar and Mrs. Lillie Sussman, sisters-in-law, for $41,000.

The Kingston is an attractive six-family building, each apartment containing six rooms, reception hall, bath and sleeping porch. It is built on a lot 50x135, with six brick garages in the rear.

The Kingston will hereafter be under the management of Weisels-Gerhart.

The Weisels-Gerhart Co. also reports the sale of a double Colonial residence at 5435 Maple avenue, containing 12 rooms, built on a lot 60x150. The property was sold for the account of Mrs. Georgiana Miller Gardner to Richard P. Flattery, who was represented by the J. S. Blake & Bro. Realty Co.

KING'S DEHYDRATED FRUITS & VEGETABLES

A way has been found to take ripe fruits and vegetables, fresh from the garden and orchard and, without cooking or adding sugar, or changing the appetizing original flavors, textures or colors, put them into a form in which they will keep indefinitely.

Thus you may now serve ripe, fresh fruits and vegetables throughout the out-of-season months.

Think what that means!

Instead of depending upon cold storage fruits or vegetables, or canned goods, all of which too often have been gathered when green and mellowed artificially, you may now have the nature-ripened products just as though they were freshly gathered from your own garden or orchard.

Refresh KING'S in clear water!

King's Dehydrated Fruits and Vegetables have had their water content removed by a special, patented process. They are brought back to almost their original form by simply immersing them in clear, cold water for several hours. The tiny cells, having been left intact, quickly re-absorb their normal water content, and the fruit or vegetable is filled out just as a sponge will fill out when placed in water.

All the food value of fresh ripeness

King's Dehydration removes only the water. Because King's Products were gathered when nature ripened, you get all the luscious, fully developed flavors, healthful necessary mineral salts, and sugars of the original fresh products. Neither palate nor body is deprived of these most essential natural foods any longer, where a stock of KING'S is kept on the pantry shelf.

A Pound of King's is Dehydrated from 3 to 15 Pounds of Fresh Products
The waste and preparatory work is eliminated for you

THE POST-DISPATCH PLATFORM

I know that my retirement will make no difference in its cardinal principles, that it will always fight for progress and reform, never tolerate injustice or corruption, always fight demagogues of all parties, never belong to any party, always oppose privileged classes and public plunderers, never lack sympathy with the poor, always remain devoted to the public welfare, never be satisfied with merely printing news, always be drastically independent; never be afraid to attack wrong, whether by predatory plutocracy or predatory poverty.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Watchman's Long Hours.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Why doesn't the Government or State pass a law regarding the hours of labor for all men and women, as well as Government employes, and prohibiting Sunday work, if they do not want strikes and trouble of all kinds?
My husband is a watchman and is compelled to work 12 hours every day in the year, with no rest nor time to do anything for himself, and he is worn out at night he is hardly able to take a bath. That is God's truth, and there is no excuse for this big, rich corporation working their watchmen like that except inhuman greed. They don't dare work their other men that way because they are union men. That shows how a union protects a man. Most firms have three watchmen, each working eight hours a day and off one day a week, or at least every other week. Policemen are only required to work eight hours a day and get holidays. And firemen are now demanding the same. No man can do as good work nor protect a place as well when he is worn out from overwork.
Every man should also receive at least $100 per month and more after six months' service. Very few things are coming down in price and other things are going up to make up for it, and everything is from two to ten times as high as it was four years ago and no increase in wages for most of the people to meet these increases. Firms of all kinds, large and small, are making from 100 to 2000 per cent profit on the necessities of life. This is proven by newspaper accounts of dividends and by retail prices also.

It is the duty of the Government to protect the people from overwork and robbery, therefore this Government should pass a national eight-hour labor law to protect everybody from overwork and give employment to everybody. They should also examine the books and profits of all corporations, firms and individuals dealing in the necessities and other commodities of life and imprison violators of the law.
If the churches would examine the working hours and conditions of other firms as they did the Eastern steel corporations they would find that just as bad conditions prevail in some of them too, and if all the churches would join together and start a big nation-wide drive for a universal eight-hour work-day they would receive the gratitude of millions of workers who would gladly join and support the church if they had time to go to church, which they would have with a national eight-hour work-day.

Should Convicts Own Cars?

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
I want to offer a suggestion through the columns of your valuable paper: That during the coming Legislature some Representative will introduce a bill prohibiting any ex-convict or noted criminal from owning or operating any automobile or automobile truck, making it a felony for them to own or operate any machine of that kind, as they use them for holdups and bank robberies.
The police officers know of some of these convicted and noted criminals who own and operate high-powered automobiles, and they have been arrested as often as two or three times in one night suspected of robberies and holding up citizens. This law would be a great help to the police and citizens to get rid of the noted criminals. Hoping that some Representative in the coming Legislature will give this matter some consideration.

A TENTH DISTRICT PATROLMAN.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Having read in your paper of a plan to remodel the courthouse, I would like to suggest (although I believe it was suggested before) a plan to make it a downtown grammar and high school. There are a great many boys and girls below the Twelfth street line who have never attended school, for the simple reason there was none handy. Of course there would have to be a night school also, because some work in the daytime, but would only be too glad to be able to obtain an education in the evening. There are enough pupils to make this school a success. I have only stated a few reasons for this school, but no doubt the editor could furnish more. If the Post-Dispatch will only push this idea, it would become a success.

Another Tribute to Wilson.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch:
Today he may be weak in flesh, but Mr. Wilson's spirit is eternally strong, and his truth has been tried to make us see through his idealism, will still go marching on. No material force can kill him. Twenty centuries ago the teachers of the Christ drove the nails in his hands, but his truths and ideals were untouched and are still growing. Mr. Wilson has tried to make us see that civilization built merely on power, glory, money, merchandise and domination are houses built on sand and must perish. The seat of earth is not a throne for him, his one American I must voice my praises and give thanks for Woodrow Wilson, a constructive spirit who believes in the happiness of women, children, cities and lands—life, not death.

THE FREEDOM OF THE SEAS.

The suggestion of the Post-Dispatch that if the Republicans should decide to ratify the peace covenant with reservations, they put the reservations in the form of a bill of rights applicable to all nations in the League, has aroused interest among the supporters of the League in both parties.

In addition to the four main points first suggested for the bill, one other condition should be stipulated. The points we suggested were:

1. The right to accept or reject the League's advice in the matter of declaring war and free judgment and consent for the use of military forces.
2. Right of withdrawal on reasonable notice.
3. Equality of votes.
4. Freedom from interference with domestic concerns or traditional peace policies.

The addition of the freedom of the seas for commerce, under rules formulated by the League or by its tribunal for the settlement of justiciable disputes, and the codifying and defining of international law. Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, pertinently directs attention to the fact that the fundamental thing for which the United States entered the war was the freedom of the seas. It was the effort of Germany and Great Britain to curtail the freedom of neutrals on the seas which aroused our chief opposition from the first, and we finally entered the war because Germany, unlike Britain, which covered its assaults under the guise of law and diplomacy, attacked our ships and took the lives of American citizens by submarine warfare.

When the war ended Germany was so completely wiped off the seas that we had to demand the right of freedom on the seas not from the defeated enemy but from a victorious ally. The seas were in the keeping of Great Britain, and Lloyd George thrust aside Mr. Wilson's point on that subject when it was brought up at the peace conference. It was waived for the time. But it is a crucial point in the work of maintaining peace. Its right settlement is essential to every nation. Peace will not long continue if one nation, or a group of nations, control the seas and exercise that control without regard to the rights of others.

Beyond the indirect trade interest and the protection from future embroilment in European quarrels through violation of our rights, by the rehabilitation and stabilizing of Europe and the maintenance of peace there, we gain nothing of specific advantage from the treaty and the covenant.

We are, however, specifically interested, as is every nation, in the freedom of the seas under well-defined rules, which will restrain any nation with a powerful navy from wrongful interference with trade for war or other aggressive purpose and from endangering the shipping and lives of noncombatants in case of war. Objection to the control of sea freedom by law cannot be urged except by a nation which harbors a purpose to use predominant sea power for selfish ends.

The United States would contribute another great service to mankind if, by peaceful means through the League of Nations, we succeeded in establishing the freedom of the seas. This achievement would paralyze the last arm of imperialism.

"I AM OF THE MISSISSIPPI VALLEY."

Asked by a Post-Dispatch correspondent at New Orleans for his view on the Mississippi River for shipping, President-elect Harding replied:

You know, I am of the Mississippi Valley, and I know its needs. I will do all I can to aid river traffic.

It was a happy answer. It is true, too, that as a citizen of Marion, O., Mr. Harding is a citizen "of the Mississippi Valley." And if the President-elect had come from White Owl, S. D.; Antioch, Neb.; Canon City, Colo.; Holdenville, Ok.; Brownsville, Tex.; Clinton, Mich.; Loretto, Ky., or any of a thousand other places, he could have said, with equal truth, "I am of the Mississippi Valley." For all of those towns are Mississippi Valley towns, as much so as St. Louis is. They all have their equity in the river, they will all share in the development and utilization of the river.

An important step in bringing about the river's service is to get all the citizens of the valley to realize, as Mr. Harding does, that "I am of the Mississippi Valley."

GOOD REPUBLICAN RESOLUTIONS.

Republican Senators and Senators-elect, meeting in St. Louis, have renewed pledges of economy made during the campaign. The useless employes that heretofore have swarmed through the State House will not spend their winter vacation in Jefferson City this year. Further, the ancient practice among legislators of bestowing clerkships upon members of the family is severely condemned and, implicitly, will not be followed under the new order.

Those are excellent resolutions. Still, an oft-discussed public is likely to be skeptical. In political annals the "ins" are always wicked, wasteful persons, the "outs" are conscientious and capable. But the political mutations which transpose the two rarely bring about millennial transformations. Nepotism is as prevalent under one party as another, and lawmakers, whatever their party persuasion, seem to require about the same number of attendants.

All this may be changed at Jefferson City this winter. If it is, and if economy and fidelity in small things are extended to larger enterprises, Missouri will continue to be Republican by a safe margin, though not by the present preposterous majority. But the Republicans must understand that Missouri will have to be shown.

THE TROUBLE WITH THE PRIMARIES.

The chief cause of the dissatisfaction with the primary system in vogue in most of the states was indicated by Charles Evans Hughes in a speech at Indianapolis. The complement of the direct nominating principle, the unfulfilled condition essential to its satisfactory working, is the short ballot. Mr. Hughes says:

There has been no failure from the first to recognize that the short ballot should go along with direct nomination machinery, but the one was adopted without the other being brought into general use. The result is a situation far more complicated than that at a regular election, for which the short ballot was originally urged as a remedy. There are, generally speaking, as many different ballots at a primary as at a regular election. Instead, however, of there being but one candidate for office on each ticket, as in a regular election, there are several, contesting for election but for nomination—sometimes half a dozen or more candidates. The outcome is that the so-called offices of low visibility are lost sight of. The voters are confused. Their collective judgments are capricious and often disappointing.

The destruction of direct nominations is aimed at by politicians in several different parts of the country. Rather than to destroy them, why not supplement them with a further departure, desirable for its own sake? The short ballot would contribute to more precise and intelligent results in both regular and primary elections. It would be valuable, even if direct primaries are abolished.

Perhaps our women, from whom so many excellent innovations are expected, will include this in their program of general election reform.

THE "WHITE COLLAR" WORKERS.

In its forthcoming membership drive the American Federation of Labor, it is announced, will marshal its most persuasive forces on the "white collar" workers, meaning the clerks and the labor generally employed in that industrial no man's land broadly described as the salaried class. This element has remained aloof from and even antagonistic to unionism, but whether or not a change in sentiment has resulted from the experience of recent years is debatable. The federation heads evidently believe such a change has taken place.

That the experience of the salaried class, generally speaking, was not happy during the war years does not have to be asserted. While wages for almost all labor were reaching new levels, their advances were relatively slight. Caught in the pressure of increased prices and comparatively stationary compensation, they had a difficult time of it. That such workers often asked themselves whether their salary increases would not have been much greater were they organized can hardly be questioned. It is upon such experience and reasoning, presumably, the Federation leaders predicate their hope that those workers have a different attitude now towards unionism.

What the outcome of the drive will be cannot be forecast, but nobody can doubt that this is the psychological time for such a campaign. And if the "white collar" workers affiliate with the federation, and transfer their class allegiance and sympathies from the employer to the employed, the transition will not be due to the arguments or eloquence of the federation canvassers. It will be due to the policy of the employers, which will have convinced the "white collar" workers that they can get better salaries through unionism than through nonunionism.

MESSRS. SULLIVAN AND MIDDELKAMP.

All things considered, doubtless the defeat of two of the "Three K" judicial candidates was the finest example of independent voting ever presented in St. Louis. With various Republican candidates of average party strength polling pluralities ranging from 50,000 to 60,000, Messrs. Miller and Hochdoerfer were elected by pluralities in the vicinity of 3,000. Compared with the average vote for other candidates, they ran more than 60,000 ahead of their ticket. But in considering independence in voting, that other fine example presented in the case of the election of Secretary of State and State Auditor ought not to be lost sight of. Mr. Hyde's plurality for Governor in St. Louis was 51,110. But the plurality for Becker over Mr. Sullivan for Secretary of State was 66,697 and the plurality of Hackmann over Middelkamp for State Auditor was 69,369. Messrs. Sullivan and Middelkamp, to whose unsatisfactory records the Post-Dispatch directed attention repeatedly, ran behind the head of the ticket respectively 15,587 and 18,949 votes.

Probably in a year in which the normal Democratic plurality was polled, these two men would have been defeated. But their own vote is far from expressing the destructive effects caused by their presence on the ticket. They contributed largely to such Missouri conditions as explain in part the general uprising against the State Democracy and all Democratic candidates.

THOUGHTS AT THE SYMPHONY.

I am a low-brow.
And I know it.
Most others are Poor things!
Anyway—
I wondered
If that pretty girl in the box
Was smug at me or
The stranger next to me;
Why Berlin doesn't syncope
Schumann's SYMPHONIC POEMS.
(There's a teasing melody there.)
Why there was only one other male
Beside myself in the seven rows.
Why the orchestra didn't play Atonal.
'Twould make a hound-dog lose his trail;
If the soloist receives his check
In advance, a la Bryan;
If women really fall
For those artist guys so much,
I doubt it.
If it wouldn't be a good idea
To write-up a concert
In spot page style, like this—
"Heine" Gebhard started playing the initial scale, but pulled a third, putting out Staccato and Allegro, which drew down the house. The keyboard phenom hopped on a cadenza grander in the second stanza, exhibiting some real class.

EXPLAINING.

Sir: I note your explanation regarding the clipping about Villa. I'm "sneered" you failed to grasp my idea. I have no objections to Villa having two arms; far from it, and hope he has—admitting a sneaking admiration for him. But the P.D. should be consistent. In the last three years on several occasions, it has published half-tone cuts of the gentleman, and always with one empty sleeve. The public in the future will insist he have two arms. So if you should then publish him as only having one, that he lost the other reaching for something that belonged to someone else, the explanation will be satisfactory. But if six months afterwards you reproduce him as being ambidextrous again, by the big toe of the Prophet" well, object! I'm personally acquainted with a man who had his arm cut off over thirty years ago, and it never has grown back.

MEMORY.

(From a quail hunter in California who is homesick for some Missouri sport.)

YESTER-EVE I musing sat, beside a slowly dying flame.

Through the vistas of the memory long forgotten visions came;

And I saw the distant sunset, glow on dreary autumn hills.

And the oak trees in the valley where the lingering Graciosa fills.

Far I heard a dying gun-shot and the scattered coveys' call;

Heard the whistlers draw together and the wintry night should fall;

From across the dusky valley heard the plaintive bell like notes.

And a dozen echoes answer from the hillside's phantom throats.

Then an icy wind came sweeping from the darkened flats below.

With the sting of late November and a promise of the snow.

And I turned from contemplation of a pleasure that has passed.

As the dying sunset faded and the night came down at last.

The MIRROR of PUBLIC OPINION

GERMAN REPARATIONS.

From the New York Globe.
THE treaty of Versailles held Germany responsible for more losses than a dozen Germany could repay. These included not only direct damage done to civilian life and property, but also cost of pensions and separation allowances for soldiers and soldiers' families. The two principal questions concerning reparation were, first, how large a sum Germany could be made to pay; and second, how this sum should be distributed among the allied and associated Powers. American representatives at the peace conference were in favor of fixing the sum at a figure which Germany would be able to meet, and the English have swung over to their position. But the French have always taken a more romantic view of reparations and have never yet presented an estimate clearly within Germany's ability to pay. An electric indemnity, which might be increased as Germany's wealth increased, would always have suited them better. The Reparations Commission was appointed because the peace conference could not reach an agreement on the subject.

RAISING REVENUE.

From the New York Tribune.
TREASURY officials have prepared a revenue program to accompany the inflated estimate of Government expenditures which the Secretary will soon send to Congress. These estimates are expected to run well over $4,000,000,000. The President vetoed the Federal budget bill passed at the last session, and no restraining had been laid on the department spenders. To save its face the Treasury feels constrained to suggest an average minimum tax bill of $4,000,000,000 for the next three years. Secretary Houston is expected to recommend the abolition of excess profits taxes and a corresponding increase in income taxes. Congress, however, will make the tax law. The Republicans also want to get rid of some profits taxes. But such profits are shrinking, and it is hard to calculate a year in advance what their yield will be. Moreover, the Republican plan to reduce taxation, rather than shift it. Mr. Felt, chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, hopes to make a cut in the estimate similar to that made this year and thus escape substituting other taxes for the excess profits tax. There is, moreover, a source of revenue in import duties which might be drawn on, without economic arrangement, to make up a part of the excess profits tax deficit.

CASH, CREDIT AND CROPS.

From the Lansing Journal.
THE November statement of money in circulation allows each of us $19.48, against $19.48 a year ago. The total this year is $14,315,145,111 against $14,315,145,111 last year. These are the figures of money in people's pockets and tills, including the money in the Treasury and banks, not circulating, the total is $14,315,145,111, including $14,315,145,111. Credit is not denied to these figures, but only to those not establishing their right to it by meeting the conditions of credit which are regarded as right and proper by competent judges. The trouble with the agriculturalists who complain that they cannot sell their crops is that prices are low and that there are few buyers at the decline. Their best customers are foreign buyers who have neither cash nor credit to spare, and who are not able to supply goods in payment for lack of raw materials from which to produce them. Those who have goods to sell, if only they will ask instead of holding. The crops will move themselves if only buyer and seller can be brought together. There is no lack of cash, credit or crops. There is only a derangement of financial machinery, and it is most serious in the case of our least experienced exporters—the farmers. They have been accustomed to let others sell their property and make a profit belonging to them if they will earn it. When they become good exporters as our manufacturers, they will have less to complain of.

SECOND INSTALLMENT

CHIVALRY prescribed a manner towards her. He certain superficial light tested solely for the purpose of being serious. Yet he was taking this precaution he had his privilege. She had begun to reveal to him that inward naïveté to mere acquaintances. of hers was sunny, but serious self, and her, it was necessary. He was abashed, but he was great compliment she paid him that his attitude had hurt her. "That's the last thing in the do," he said, gravely.

"Why do you do it, then?" —so flippant? You've hurt me." Burgess looked at the ground because I'm lucky enough to be of common sense."

"Are you sure it's that?" "He shook his head affirmatively. I'd hate to have you rotter. . . . You've got so I care for you, haven't you?" She made no answer, but he chafed from her silence.

"It's a funny sort of thing I want to tell you, anyway. been nice to you lately. And care so much. More than I do I'll let myself. I can't be a don't dare to."

She lifted her eyes to him. "Do you always work on that to people as soon as you begin He put out his hand. "You easier for me, if you will. I'm seeing you, and hearing you but I can't ever ask you to be why I can't be—human."

"Is that a reason?" she asked. Burgess held tightly to her. "I couldn't spend as much as you. Every cause they've earned it by so I've failed. There's no more. You probably can't have any standard that we can, and I know what it means. Her voice was so gentle that he didn't take it.

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

=By James J. Montague.

OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS.
A Yankee, who in Montreal
Would fain have got a bun
(This happened early in the fall)
Was told it wasn't done.
The barkeep whispered with a wink:
"Though Montreal may thirst
We feel, that in dispensing drink
The U. S. A. comes first.
And though no customers are barred
From sipping beer and wine,
All liquor of the kind called hard
Is sent across the line."

Another Yankee in Quebec,
With an expectant grin,
Allowed he'd like to wrap his neck
Around a slug of gin.
But a Canadian, stout and bland,
Sold in a soothing tone:
"The need, sir, of your native land
Is greater than our own.
For gin your parching lips to lave
You had best will seek
The liquor of the sort you crave
Has all been shipped to Maine."
Thus Sidney, stretched upon the field
Made desolate by war,
Was generously moved to yield
The cup he needed sore.
And thus the Lady of the North
Obscured a suffering man,
Forgot all self, and stretched forth
A moist and helping hand.
The liquor that would bear her past
The winter's snow and ice
From her parched lips has cast,
With noble sacrifice.

Question of Authority
The order of the day for the assembly contained several items, of an apparently innocuous character, promising in themselves such sensational interest as the day's session developed. Doubtability was seen, however, in the failure of the council of the city to act last night on the Vietnamese might provoke an debate on Armenia and raise the question of the relations of the oil and the assembly.

The respective powers of the assembly and the executive committee is looming up as one of the greatest questions before the council. The clash on this subject usually comes in discussion of the report of the organization of the council in regular course, but it can be precipitated by refusal of the council to carry out any of the assembly's resolutions. It was last night that the council had had taken no action with reference to the Armenian resolution, and J. Ralston's attitude after the meeting was taken to indicate that he was in no hurry to urge the assembly to take action.

The Council of the League, but took no active to the resolution.

Balfour, upon leaving his room, was asked what had been taken. He shrugged and merely described readings as "that curious thing."

Dr. C. C. Cline, of Washington, asked as to a question as to what had been taken. "That no action has been taken."

In the course of this session, Delegate Miller asked that Germany's protest of the league's method of appointing former German members, submitted recently before the assembly, be referred to a committee. This went over.
